ABOUT THE UFS

The University of the Free State (UFS) has a proud history as one of the oldest, most respected institutions of higher education in South Africa. It opened its doors in Bloemfontein in 1904 as the Grey University College, with six students in the Humanities. Today it is a multi-campus institution, with two diverse campuses in Bloemfontein and one in Qwaqwa in the scenic Eastern Free State, accommodating more than 40 000 students in its seven faculties (Economic and Management Sciences, Education, Health Sciences, the Humanities, Law, Natural and Agricultural Sciences, Theology and Religion), with an increasing number of international students and associates, and an ever-widening scope of active involvement in and contribution to its surrounding communities.

For the past 118 years, the UFS has been delivering quality graduates who have made their mark in various sectors. What sets the institution apart is its holistic student support initiatives, enabling it to achieve some of the highest success rates in the country. Delivering students who are in high demand in the global job market, remains a top priority. An established network of industry partners and close collaboration with the public and private sectors, as well as a continuous process of transformation and curriculum renewal, dovetail to produce highly employable graduates.

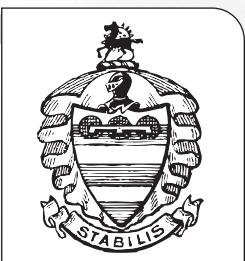

UFS research efforts are driven by dedicated scholars, some of whom are international leaders in their fields, with industry and social impact and real-world application.

Through the principle of engaged scholarship, the UFS responds to societal needs, using its scholarly and professional expertise with an intentional public purpose and benefit.

The UFS is an institution that goes all out to provide its students and staff with an outstanding university experience. Anchored in a value bedrock of social justice, respect, and caring, the institution has managed to remain steadfastly relevant in a challenging and ever-changing national higher education landscape.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE UFS CREST OVER MORE THAN A CENTURY

1904

Up to 1935, the same coat of arms was used as the Grey College School.

1935

By 1935, with the name change to University College of the Orange Free State, the coat of arms fell into disuse, especially among students.

1947

In 1947, an agreement between management and students led to the new motto Per Fidem ad Sapientiam (Through faith to wisdom).

1950

In 1952, it was changed to In Deo Sapientiae Lux (In God is the light of wisdom). The traditional orange, white and blue, linking the UFS to the South African national colours, changed in the late 1990s.

The orange was replaced by cherry red.

UNIVERSITY OF THE FREE STATE
UNIVERSITEIT VAN DIE VRYSTAAT
YUNIVESITHI YA FREISTATA

The academic brand - the historic University of the Free State crest that has been the symbol of the university since 1952, has evolved to embrace the aesthetic expectations of the stakeholders.

The shape of the traditional academic shield has been simplified and contemporised. Much of the symbolism of the crest remains intact, acknowledging the location of the UFS brand as one of the country's premier institutions of higher education, with a proud history of academic excellence and an ever evolving, vibrant culture.

MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR AND VICE-CHANCELLOR

Dear Student

Welcome to the graduation ceremony of the University of the Free State (UFS).

We are especially pleased that your graduation ceremony can take place in person and in the presence of the university congregation.

Today is a memorable day and a culmination of the time you spent here at the UFS. You are not only becoming an alumnus of this great 118-year-old institution, but you are now also part of a fraternity of exceptional individuals who have graduated before you.

Congratulations to our graduands – this is a special day indeed and it is certainly heart-warming to see so many of you being conferred these well-deserved qualifications today. You should be proud of your achievements – take a moment to celebrate and acknowledge YOU.

At the same time, you would not have reached this milestone without the support of many people around you – let us also acknowledge and express gratitude to your support structures – the parents, family, friends, guardians, and lecturers who made it possible for you to be here today.

As you venture into the world, you will find yourself contemplating what your role in the world is and what kind of a world you want to live in. Sometimes the road ahead can be challenging and complex – however, remember that the skills of hard work, resilience, determination, and focus will help you forge ahead. After all, these are the skills that have helped you to achieve your UFS qualification.

Also be mindful that collective and individual responsibility is important to our success – this became very clear during the pandemic. Reach out to others, lend a helping hand wherever you can, support each other, involve yourselves in your communities, and most of all, be kind and humane. Be mindful of these in everything that you do.

Graduands, I am proud of your resilience. You are truly inspiring, and I am confident that you are well prepared to embrace the future and flourish in anything you set your mind to.

Be brave, be bold, and make a difference in this world.

Best wishes

PROF FW PETERSEN

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY WITH SPECIALISATION IN ENGLISH

MUKUNGURUTSE, Sarah Yeukai

Ms Sarah Yeukai Mukungurutse is a BA (General), BA Honours (English) and MA (English) graduate of the University of Zimbabwe. She is also currently a Lecturer in the Department of Linguistics of Zimbabwe Open University. Dr Mukungurutse is an emerging scholar in the field of literary and cultural representations of the post-2000 Zimbabwe crisis and its resultant diaspora.

With her thesis, AMBIGUOUS MOBILITIES: INTERROGATING REPRESENTATIONS OF MIGRATION, SURVIVAL AND RESILIENCE IN SELECTED POST-2000 ZIMBABWEAN LITERARY TEXTS, the candidate contributes to a growing body of scholarship on the forced and voluntary mobilities of Zimbabweans that were catalysed, in significant part, by the land redistribution exercise that began in earnest in 2000, and after-effects still reverberate internally in Zimbabwe and her regional and far-flung diasporas. Deploying her excellent mastery of literary research techniques and a vast knowledge in the field of migration literature the candidate was able to produce an insightful, well-argued and logically presented research document that makes a significant, original contribution to knowledge on migration and mobilities in Zimbabwean literature. Sarah Mukungurutse draws on Zimbabwean histories and cultures to locate her discussions of characters' experiences of homeliness and unhomeliness. Of particular importance are her propositions of the concepts of (mis)arrival, resilience, transitional homes, ambiguous escapes, and failed returns.

THE SEANAMARENA THE TRADITIONAL BASOTHO BLANKET

The Main Procession Graduation Gowns – embroidered with rich diversity

South Africa, and the Free State in particular, has a long-standing friendship with our neighbouring country, Lesotho.

Through a shared history, we have become co-creators of our futures. For this reason, the UFS decided to incorporate our tradition with that of the Basotho in the design of our Main Procession graduation gowns.

The gowns are inspired by the Seanamarena – the traditional Basotho blanket. The different patterns on the Seanamarena indicate the status one holds in the Basotho nation or reflect the occasion being celebrated. Keeping the Seanamarena pattern in mind, we combined our traditional academic designs with that of the Basotho nation.

YOKE PATTERNS

Yoke pattern for the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor

This Seanamarena pattern is an interpretation of a design – used exclusively for the king and chiefs – which means ‘to swear by the king’. This blanket has the highest status of all Basotho blankets.

Yoke pattern for the Chairperson of the Council

This Seanamarena Victorian crest motif appeared after the visit of the Prince of Wales to Lesotho in 1925, which made a profound impression on the local people. Customers refer to this blanket as ‘lesiba’ – meaning feathers – when buying it.

Yoke pattern for the Vice-Rector

This Seanamarena Poone design symbolises good crops, wealth, and fertility. The Poone is given as a present to honour an important visitor.

Yoke pattern for Registrar

The same Seanamarena Poone design used for the Vice-Rector applies to the Registrar, with some slight design and colour alterations.

The Deans wear gowns made in the colours of the faculties, or others which indicate the office they hold.

CONGRATULATIONS FROM THE ALUMNI OFFICE

Congratulations on your graduation and best wishes for your next adventure!
We are very proud of you and your achievements.

KEEP CONNECTED

Alumni are a real measure of a university's brand, and we strive to keep you informed of the latest news about our young leaders, pioneers, and the projects emerging from the UFS. We do this through our online platforms, social media, publications like BULT and events such as the Chancellor's Distinguished Alumni Awards. We hope that you will keep connected with your alma mater by sharing your future achievements with our alumni community.

Join the Voices from the Free State podcast series as we release a new podcast featuring a different alumnus on the first Monday of each month throughout 2021.

A CONNECTED COMMUNITY

We exist not only to keep you connected to your alma mater but to help you stay connected to each other. We encourage engagement and networking opportunities through virtual or hybrid events, informal visits, and guest lectures. You can connect with alumni globally and reconnect with former peers through the Alumni Office.

STRENGTHENING BONDS

We value your financial contributions, your time, your skills, and your networks. Strengthen your bond with your alma mater by becoming involved in mentoring, projects, events, and initiatives aimed at creating a fulfilling student and alumni experience for fellow UFS students and alumni.
