QUARTET OF PEACE

The Quartet of Peace is the name given to two violins, a viola, and a cello made in Cape Town in 2010 by the violin maker, Brian Lisus. He dedicated each to one of South Africa's four Nobel peace laureates – Albert Luthuli, Desmond Tutu, FW de Klerk, and Nelson Mandela – and called them Freedom, Peace, Reconciliation and Hope, respectively.

These are exceptionally beautiful instruments with a rich, deep glow, and because they were made to be played together, the sound of the quartet is distinctive and warm, matching the beauty of the instruments.

The instruments were first unveiled and heard in 2013.

It is with great pride that the Odeion String Quartet will be performing on the instruments during the inauguration ceremony.

KWARTET VAN VREDE

Kwartet van Vrede is die naam wat gegee is aan twee viole, 'n altviool en 'n tjello wat in 2010 in Kaapstad deur die vioolmaker, Brian Lissus, gemaak is. Hy het elkeen opgedra aan een van Suid-Afrika se vier Nobel-vredespryswenner – Albert Luthuli, Desmond Tutu, FW de Klerk en Nelson Mandela – en hulle onderskeidelik Vryheid, Vrede, Versoening en Hoop genoem.

Dit is besonder mooi instrumente met 'n ryk, diep glans, en omdat hulle gemaak is om saam gespeel te word, is die klank van die kwartet kenmerkend en warm en stem ooreen met die skoonheid van die instrumente.

Die instrumente is in 2013 onthul en vir die eerste keer gehoor.

Dit is met groot trots dat die Odeion-strykkwartet die instrumente tydens die inhuldigingsplegtigheid sal bespeel.
