GENERAL INFORMATION:

1. Allowances for other NSFAS administered funding e.g. Funza Lushaka, Social Development etc. will be paid according to the donor's requirements. Any allowance may only be administered and transferred to students as per the terms and conditions of the funder. It may also mean that the allowances must be paid to pockets.
2. All qualifying registered NSFAS students will receive the first allowance amount, irrespective whether a NSFAS agreement have been signed yet. Further allowance payments will only be made after you have signed your NSFAS agreement and payment was received from NSFAS.

3. Allowances will be transferred to students' bank accounts through Fundi procedures.

4. Since the allowances will be provided in cash it is the student's responsibility to manage their allowances wisely and to use it for the purpose received for. NSFAS Circular 6 dated 21 January 2019: "The NSFAS allowance funding is to assist eligible students with funding for costs related to their studies such as books, accommodation, food and travel where applicable. In the process we want students to grow to be responsible citizens and take charge of their economic needs and responsibilities."
