1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. Pursuant to the provisions of section 32 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (Act No.108 of 1996) ("Constitution"), the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (Act No. 2 of 2000) ("PAIA") was promulgated in order to foster a culture of transparency and accountability in public and private bodies, by giving effect to the right of access to information and actively promoting a society in which the people of the Republic of South Africa have effective access to enable them to fully exercise and protect all the rights enshrined in the Constitution.
- 1.2. PAIA establishes voluntary and mandatory mechanisms or procedures to give effect to the constitutional right to access to information in a manner that enables persons to obtain records of public bodies as swiftly, inexpensively and effortlessly as reasonably possible, and generally to promote transparency, accountability and effective governance of all public and private bodies by (including, but not limited to) empowering and educating everyone:
 - 1.2.1. to understand their rights in terms of PAIA, in order to exercise their rights in relation to public and private bodies;
 - 1.2.2. to understand the functions and operation of public bodies, and
 - 1.2.3. to effectively scrutinise and participate in decision-making by public bodies that affect their rights.
 - 1.2.4. Section 9 of PAIA, however, recognises that such right to access to information is subject to certain justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:
 - 1.2.4.1. the reasonable protection of privacy;
 - 1.2.4.2. commercial confidentiality, and
 - 1.2.4.3. effective, efficient and good governance.
- 1.3. Conversely, the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 (Act No. 4 of 2013) ("POPIA") promotes the protection of personal information processed by public and private bodies, inducing certain conditions so as to establish minimum requirements for the processing of personal information. POPIA amends certain provisions of PAIA, balancing the need for access to information against the need to ensure the protection of personal information by providing for the establishment of an Information Regulator to exercise certain powers and perform certain duties and functions in terms of POPIA and in terms of PAIA, providing for the issuing of codes of conduct and providing for the rights of persons regarding unsolicited electronic communications and automated decision-making in order to regulate the flow of personal information and to provide for matters concerned therewith.
- 1.4. Section 14 of PAIA obliges public bodies to compile a manual that provides information on both the types and categories of records held by the public body. PAIA also stipulates the minimum requirements with which such manual has to comply.
- 1.5. This Manual serves as the University of the Free State's (the "University") access to information manual in terms of section 14 of PAIA and provides a reference to the records held and the process that needs to be followed to request access to such records as required by section 14 of PAIA.
- 1.6. This Manual also includes information on the submission of objections to the processing of personal information and requests to delete or destroy personal information or records thereof in terms of POPIA.
- 1.7. Should you have any difficulty in using this guide, please do not hesitate to contact the relevant Deputy Information Officer, described in clause 5 hereunder.

2. AVAILABILITY OF THE MANUAL

7.3. Procedure for requesting a record

7.3.1.A request for access to information must be addressed to the Deputy Information Officer on a prescribed form (Appendix A) at the applicable address or email address. If a person, because of disability or illiteracy, is unable to make a request in writing, such request may be made orally and the putting thereof in writing will be facilitated by the Deputy Information Officer.

7.3.2. The prescribed form must indicate the following clearly:

- 7.3.2.1. The category of information requested.
- 7.3.2.2. The form of access required.
- 7.3.2.3. The details of the person making the request.

7.3.3. Kindly note that it will assist the University, in fulfilling the requestor's request, if the requestor complies with the procedures set out herein. Please do not hesitate to contact us through the Deputy Information Officer at the above-mentioned address, telephone number, fax and/or email address (see clause 5). Please also ensure that you indicate your capacity or designation within your organisation (where applicable), to assist the University in processing your request.

7.3.4. If you are requesting new information on behalf of another individual, please indicate the capacity in which you are related to the individual or organisation and provide the University with the individual's consent to make the requested information available to you. This is to ensure that the University does not deny you access on the basis that the information is confidential. Please ensure that you mention the format of the record that you have requested when making your request, so that the University can be of maximum assistance to you.

7.3.5. Each section of Appendix A contains instructions that should be followed to improve the likelihood of the request being granted. The requester must take the following important notes into consideration when completing the request form:

7.3.5.1 Where a request is made for records relating to an organisation, it is recommended that the organisation's public officer and/or duly authorised person make or authorise the request. If the request is made on behalf of another person, a copy of the mandate authorising the requester to act on behalf of that person must be submitted with the duly completed form – Appendix A.

7.3.5.2 The request should provide as much detail as possible to enable the Deputy Information Officer to identify him/her.

7.3.5.3 The University will consider the request and inform the requester within 30 (thirty) days from the date of receipt thereof by the University, or as stipulated by PAIA, whether the request has been approved or rejected. This must be done in writing or, as far as practically feasible, in the manner requested by the applicant.

7.3.6 Assistance to requesters:

7.3.6.1 If a requester requires any assistance in making a request, the Information Officer must provide such assistance free of charge.

7.3.6.2 Should a requester make a request for access to information that does not comply with the prescribed procedures, or is not made on the prescribed form, the Information Officer may not refuse the request.

7.3.6.3 The Information Officer or his/her authorised deputies must provide reasons for refusing the request, and

7.3.6.4 The Information Officer or his/her authorised deputies must be willing to assist the person to complete the request in the right format.

7.4. What can be requested?

7.4.1. A requester must be given access to any University record if:

7.4.1.1. that record is required for the exercising or protection of any rights;

7.4.1.2. the requester complies with the procedural requirements of PAIA relating to a request for access to that record, and access to that record is not refused in terms of any grounds set out below.

7.4.1.3. The University has the right to refuse requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or involve an unreasonable diversion of resources.

7.4.2. The other main grounds on which the University has the right, in terms of PAIA or POPIA, to refuse a request for information are the mandatory protection of:

- 7.4.2.1. the privacy of a third party, who is a natural person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person;
- 7.4.2.2. the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains trade secrets, financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party.
- 7.4.2.3. information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the University if the disclosure could put a third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- 7.4.2.4. confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
- 7.4.2.5. the safety of individuals and the protection of property and the operations of the University;
- 7.4.2.6. records that would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- 7.4.2.7. the commercial activities of the University, which may include trade secrets, financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the University;
- 7.4.2.8. information which, if disclosed, could put the University at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- 7.4.2.9. computer software that is owned by the University; and
- 7.4.2.10. the research information of the University or a third party if disclosure would disclose the identity of the University, the researcher or the subject matter of research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.

7.5. How long must a requester wait before receiving the requested information?

- 7.5.1. The Deputy Information Officer is required to take a decision on the request within 30 (thirty) days of receipt of the request, failing which the request is deemed to have been refused.
- 7.5.2. The Deputy Information Officer may extend the period for taking a decision to 60 (sixty) days under the following circumstances:
 - 7.5.2.1. if the request is for a large number of records or requires a search through a large number of records and compliance with the original period would unreasonably interfere with the activities of the University;
 - 7.5.2.2. if the requested records are not situated in the same town or city as the University offices that the request cannot reasonably be completed within 30 (thirty) days;
 - 7.5.2.3. where consultation among the divisions of the University or with another entity is necessary or desirable to decide upon the request and which consultation cannot be reasonably completed within 30 (thirty) days;
 - 7.5.2.4. where more than one of the circumstances contemplated above exist in respect of the request, making compliance with the 30 (thirty) day period not reasonably possible;
 - 7.5.2.5. if the requester consents in writing to the extension, or

- 7.5.2.6. should the 30 (thirty) day period be extended, the Deputy Information Officer will notify the requester of the extension as well as provide the requester with the reasons for the extension.

7.6. How will a requester be informed of the outcome of the request?

The requester will be notified of the Deputy Information Officer's decision in the manner specified in the request form.

7.7. What is deemed a refusal of a request?

If the Deputy Information Officer does not give the decision on a request for access to the requester within the 30 (thirty) day period or within any extended period, then the Deputy Officer will be regarded as having refused the request.

7.8. What can a requester do if the request for information is refused?

- 7.8.1. The requester may elect to submit an internal appeal following the prescripts of the PAIA as laid down in sections 75 to 77, with the use of the Internal Appeal Form attached as Appendix E.
- 7.8.2. Should the requester not be satisfied with the decision of the University, the requester may, after exhausting the complaints procedure, as provided for in this Manual, apply to court for relief. The said application must be made within 180 (one hundred and eighty) days after the decision was made by the Deputy Information Officer. On hearing such an application, the court may grant a just and equitable order, including –
 - 7.8.2.1. confirming, amending or setting aside the decision that is the subject of the application;
 - 7.8.2.2. requiring the Information Officer to take some action or to refrain from taking such action, as the court considers necessary within the period mentioned in the order;
 - 7.8.2.3. granting an interdict, interim or specific relief, a declaratory order or compensation; or
 - 7.8.2.4. costs.
- 7.8.3. Such an application may be made at the Court with relevant jurisdiction.

7.9. What if the request is successful?

- 7.9.1. The requester will be given access to a record if all procedural requirements have been complied with according to PAIA requirements, that is –
 - 7.9.1.1. the request is properly documented on the prescribed form;
 - 7.9.1.2. proof of authority to act on another's behalf is furnished, if making the request on another person's behalf and the record that is requested is sufficiently described to enable the Deputy Information Officer to identify it; and
 - 7.9.1.3. payment of all required fees.

8. FEES

- 8.1. PAIA sets out 2 (two) types of fees namely, a request fee and an access fee, that are required to be paid prior to the University assessing the request for information.
- 8.2. Fees to request and/or access are as set-out in terms of the Regulations published in terms of PAIA and herein included under Appendix B.
- 8.3. Fees in relation to access by a data subject to his/her own personal information held by the University are herein below covered in clause 14.2.

13. REPORTING BY THE UFS

Unless otherwise provided by law, in terms of section 32 of PAIA, the University reports annually to the Information Regulator as per its governance obligations.

14. POPIA REQUIREMENTS PERTAINING TO THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

14.1. Personal Information

14.1.1. Personal information refers to information relating to an identifiable, living, natural person and information relating to an identifiable, existing juristic person.

14.2. Purpose of Processing of Personal Information

14.2.1. In terms of POPIA, personal information must be processed for a specified purpose. The purpose for which personal information is processed by the University will depend on the nature of the personal information and the particular data subject. This purpose is ordinarily disclosed, explicitly or implicitly, at the time the personal information is collected.

14.2.2. In general, personal information is processed for purposes of onboarding students, stakeholders, suppliers, service or product delivery, records management, security, third parties, employment and related matters.

14.3. Data Subject Rights

14.3.1. Access to Personal Information

14.3.1.1. POPIA provides that a data subject may, upon proof of identity, request the responsible party to confirm, free of charge, all the information it holds about the data subject and may request access to such information, including information about the identity of third parties who have or have had access to such information.

14.3.1.2. POPIA also provides that, where the data subject is required to pay a fee for services provided to him/her, the Responsible Party must provide the data subject with a written estimate of the payable amount before providing the service and may require that the requester pay a deposit for all or part of the fee.

14.3.1.3. The grounds for refusal of the data subject's request are set out in PAIA.

14.3.2. Objecting to the Processing of Personal Information

14.3.2.1. POPIA provides that a data subject may object, at any time, to the processing of personal information by the University, on reasonable grounds relating to his/her particular situation, unless legislation provides for such processing. The data subject must complete the prescribed form attached hereto as Appendix C and submit it to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address or email address set out above in clause 5.

14.3.3. Correcting Personal Information

14.3.3.1. A data subject may also request the University to correct or delete personal information about the data subject in its possession or under its control that is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or obtained unlawfully; or destroy or delete a record of personal information about the data subject that the University is no longer authorised to retain in terms of POPIA's retention and restriction of records provisions.

- 14.3.3.2. A data subject that wishes to request a correction or deletion of personal information or the destruction or deletion of a record of personal information must submit a request to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, facsimile number or electronic mail address set out above in clause 5, on the form attached hereto as Appendix D.

14.3.4. Complaints

- 14.3.4.1. Any person may submit a complaint to the Information Regulator alleging interference with the protection of the personal information of a data subject.
- 14.3.4.2. To lodge a complaint, complete Form 5, attached as Appendix G, and email the completed form to POPIAComplaints@infoeregulator.org.za.

14.4. Categories of Data Subjects

- 14.4.1. The University holds information and records on the following categories of data subjects:

- 14.4.1.1. job applicants;
- 14.4.1.2. employees / personnel of the University;
- 14.4.1.3. stakeholders and students of the University;
- 14.4.1.4. any third party with whom the University offers services and performs its legislative mandate;
- 14.4.1.5. contractors of the University;
- 14.4.1.6. suppliers of the University, and
- 14.4.1.7. service providers of the University.

(This list of categories of data subjects is non-exhaustive.)

14.5. The categories of recipients to whom the information is supplied

- 14.5.1. Depending on the nature of the data, the University may supply information or records to the following categories of recipients:
 - 14.5.1.1. statutory oversight bodies, regulators or judicial commissions of enquiry making a request for data;
 - 14.5.1.2. any court, administrative or judicial forum, arbitration, statutory commission or ombudsman making a request for data or discovery in terms of the applicable rules (i.e. the Competition Commission in terms of the Competition Act, No. 89 of 1998);
 - 14.5.1.3. South African Revenue Services, or another similar authority;
 - 14.5.1.4. anyone making a successful application for access in terms of PAIA;
 - 14.5.1.5. Subject to the provisions of applicable law, the University may share information about a person's creditworthiness with any credit bureau or credit providers' industry association or other association for an industry in which the University operates, and
 - 14.5.1.6. any person who conducts business with the University in the ordinary course of business.

14.6. Planned trans-border flows of information

- 14.6.1. If a data subject visits the University's website from a country other than the country in which the University's servers are located (in the Republic of South Africa), the various communications will necessarily result in the transfer of information across international boundaries.
- 14.6.2. The University may need to transfer a data subject's information to other affiliates or service providers in countries outside South Africa, in which case the University will fully comply with applicable data protection legislation. This may happen if the University's servers or suppliers and service providers are based outside South Africa, or if the University's services are hosted in systems or servers outside South Africa and/or if a data subject uses the University's services and products while visiting countries outside this area. These countries may not have data-protection laws similar to those of South Africa.

14.7. Security measures implemented to ensure the confidentiality and privacy of the information which is to be processed

- 14.7.1. The University is committed to implementing leading data security safeguards.
- 14.7.2. The University has specialised security teams that constantly review and improve the University's measures to protect data subjects' personal information from unauthorised access, accidental loss, disclosure or destruction.
- 14.7.3. If the University has a contract with another organisation to provide the University with services or a service on the University's behalf to process a data subject's personal information, the University will make sure they have appropriate security measures and only process the information in the way the University has authorised them to. These organisations will not be entitled to use a data subject's personal information for their own purposes. If necessary, the University's security teams will check such organisations to make sure that they meet the security requirements the University has set.
- 14.7.4. Communications over the internet (such as emails) are not secure unless they have been encrypted. A data subject's communications may go through a number of countries before being delivered – as this is the nature of the internet. The University cannot accept responsibility for any unauthorised access or loss of personal information that is beyond the University's control.
