

Gender Diversity, Inclusion and Belonging

Faculty of Humanities
Department of Social work

In conversation with Jessica Lynn and partners

DATE 2 September 2022

TIME 09:00 – 15:30

VENUE Equitas Auditorium

The University of the Free State, Department of Social Work cordially invites you to a hybrid symposium on gender diversity, inclusion and belonging, within the context of social work and schools.

Jessica Lynn is a world-renowned transgender advocate, educator and activist. Her experiences as a transgender woman and a parent, led her to dedicate her life to spreading awareness and acceptance for gender non-conforming communities around the world. Jessica has been recognised as the Global Ambassador of the Kinsey Institute.
