THEOLOGY AND RELIGION

In a rapidly changing world focused on efficiency there is a search for a relevant theology. Students can choose from subjects including:

- Pastoral care and counselling
- Narrative pastoral therapy
- Congregational Studies
- Leadership
- Faith formation
- Homiletics
- Liturgy
- Missiology

Admission requirements

- a four-year degree in theology (with a minimum of 60% for all the modules at NQF level 8); or
- an honours degree in theology (with a minimum average of at least 60%); or
- a postgraduate diploma in theology (with a minimum average of at least 60%).

Tuition

The programme is presented in three block sessions per year. Contact sessions take place on the Bloemfontein Campus of the UFS. Independent study at the hand of a prescribed reading list is required of students. Assessment is continuous through the submission of practice-oriented assignments.

Duration of study

Two years

Articulation

Upon completion of the MTh in Practical and Missional Theology, a student can apply for admission to the PhD in Practical Theology. Selection is based on the institutional admission requirements (a weighted average of 65% at NQF level 9) and adherence to departmental selection requirements.

Projected cost

Tuition fees (excluding books)*:

2022 (Year one) - R25 020;

2023 (Year two) - R11 720

* These amounts are not quotations but only a projected cost of the full degree (completed over two years) and are based on the 2021 fees. UFS fees for 2022 will only be available at the end of 2021.

Bursaries

A limited number of small bursaries are available for students in need. The bursary should cover about a third of the registration deposit. Send an email with your student number to theologybursary@ufs.ac.za for more information.
