Are you an individual who aspires to lead from a Christian perspective? Are you a leader in different levels of the public or private sector, or a leader in your church? Then this short learning programme, Christian Leadership in Contemporary context, will equip you to:

- Understand the essence of Christian leadership
- Enhance influence of Christian leadership
- Strive towards core function of Christian leadership in your own context
- Develop skills of resolving conflicts effectively

What are the admission requirements?

- English language skills
- Basic computer skills
- Access to a computer and the internet

If you are interested, kindly write a short application letter to answer the following questions:

- Why are you interested in Christian leadership (300 words)?
- Where did you acquire computer skills (200 words)?
- Where will you get access to a computer, the internet and enough data (200 words)?

The course will use blended mode of delivery where you could choose to attend online or face-to-face in a venue on the Bloemfontein campus. The course will be run twice in a year over a three months period. The programme has a system of continuous assessment. Assessment procedures may include group interaction, game based learning, use of charts and videos, short assignments and tests. Upon completion you will receive a competency-based short learning programme certificate from the University of the Free State.
