Are you a pastor, Sunday school teacher, or a youth worker that is passionate about teaching the Bible to children? This short learning programme, Effective Bible teaching to children, will empower you to:

- Understand the developmental phases and the stages of faith development in children ages 2 – 12yrs
- Know what to teach to foster spiritual growth and Bible knowledge
- Design an age appropriate Sunday school lesson and use different teaching methods
- Effectively plan and manage a children's ministry for maximum impact.

What are the admission requirements?

- English language skills
- Basic computer skills
- Access to a computer, the internet, and enough data

If you are interested, kindly write a short essay to answer the following questions:

- Why are you interested in children's ministry? (200 words)
- How are you currently involved in your church? (100 words)
- Where did you acquire computer skills (100 words)?
- Where will you get access to a computer, the internet and enough data (100 words)?

The course is presented online, twice yearly over six weeks, with a virtual contact session every Thursday between 17:00 – 19:00. To complete the short learning programme successfully, you must complete four assignments. Upon completion you will receive a competency based short learning programme certificate from the University of the Free State.
