

INTRODUCTION TO THE BIBLE

Are you an individual who is interested to know about biblical literature? Are you interested in knowing for instance the origins of the gospels? Then this short learning programme, Introduction to the Bible will be perfect for you. It will equip you to:

- Name and explain the texts in the Bible referring to its authority.
- Distinguish between different views of the purpose and inspiration of the Bible and discuss such views critically.
- Discuss the canonisation of the Old Testament.
- Present overviews of the content and origin of the various groupings of Old Testament writings.
- Discuss the origin and message of some of the New Testament writings

The course will use online mode of delivery. The course will be run throughout the year whenever you ready to start your studies. The programme has a system of continuous assessment.

Upon completion you will receive a competency-based short learning programme certificate from the University of the Free State.

What are the admission requirements?

You need to have a Senior Certificate or National Senior Certificate.
