Dr Ali Khangela Hlongwane

Ali Khangela Hlongwane is a researcher in the History Workshop at the University of the Witwatersrand. He holds a PhD from the University of the Witwatersrand. He has published on the public histories of the 1976 uprisings: The Road to Democracy in South Africa, Volume 7: Soweto Uprisings-New Perspectives, Commemoration and Memorialisation, 2017. He is co-author of Public History and Culture in South Africa: Memorialisation and Liberation Heritage Sites in Johannesburg and the Township Space, (2019). He is also the author of two biographies of PAC leaders namely, Lion of Azania A Biography (2021) and We Must Return Home Armed or Unarmed: A Biography of John Nyati Pokela (1921-1985).

Prof Luvuyo Mthimkhulu Dondolo

Luvuyo Mthimkhulu Dondolo is an Associate Professor in the Department of History at the University of South Africa (UNISA), specializing in public history with a specific focus on heritage studies, museology, Pan Africanist scholarship, identity, and racism. From 2020 to date, he has been the Ubuntu Dialogues Seminar Fellow housed by the University of Stellenbosch and Michigan State University. He was a Fulbright Scholar based at Cheyney University of Pennsylvania (US) for the 2016/17 academic year working on African American heritage scholarship. Dondolo is also a former Rockefeller Scholarship holder and, as such, studied at Emory University in Atlanta, US, to further his understanding of public history and heritage studies. He has co-authored two books on heritage, and he is currently writing a biography of Pambani Jeremiah Mzimba and the editor of two volumes – the New African Movement and the Spatial Plan Justice in South Africa.
