THE HUMANITIES

Important notice to all undergraduate students:

1. All students in the Faculty of the Humanities will be registered manually. Students should not attempt to register themselves on PeopleSoft. After completing and signing the registration form, please submit it to the Faculty for capturing on the system.
2. Students must log in on their student portal and complete the online Activity Guide before they visit the registration venue for curriculum advice. The Activity Guide contains important information such as the 'Terms and Conditions' (your contract with the UFS), biographic details and your employment status for the current year. This information must be updated and submitted by you (the student) before registration. Failure to do this step will prevent you from being registered. The registration activity guide manual is available under the link 2023 UFS Registration Activity Guide User Manual on the UFS website.
3. No curriculum advice will be provided via email or telephonically.
4. Students must visit the advisors for curriculum advice on the specific day, as indicated in the tables below.
