INFORMATION:

Please be advised that there is limited space in the honours programme. A departmental committee will consider all applications based on academic performance and written motivation (as outlined in the above table). Meeting the minimum admission requirements for the honours programme does not guarantee selection.

The University of the Free State's Student Academic Services will notify you whether your application was successful. If you have not been notified by 30 November 2023, please check your status on the university's website and online application platform.
