

BIOGRAPHY – PROF ISOLDE DE VILLIERS

Isolde de Villiers works as a law researcher at the Supreme Court of Appeal in Bloemfontein. She has held academic positions at the University of Pretoria, University of the Free State, and University of the Western Cape. Her research interest lies at the intersection between law and space. In her doctoral thesis she analysed aspects of spatial inequality in the City of Tshwane, Pretoria. She is interested in spatial justice and overlooked people, places, and practices in cities of South Africa.