

BIOGRAPHY – PROF JL PRETORIUS

Prof Pretorius holds a BCom (Law), LLB, BA Hons and LLD (UFS) degrees. He served as academic head of the Department of Constitutional Law and Philosophy of Law at the University of the Free State from 1994-2008. He has published on various aspects of constitutional law. He spent extended research visits at the University of Augsburg and the Max Planck Institute for Foreign Public Law and International Law (Heidelberg, Germany) on scholarships awarded by the Alexander Von Humboldt Foundation. Before retirement in 2019, he served as the Coordinator: Postgraduate Programmes and Research at the Free State Centre for Human Rights. His research interests include constitutionalism, human rights, employment equity, and language rights. He is presently an extraordinary professor at the Centre.