

BIOGRAPHY – MS Ntokozo NTSETSO

Miss N Ntseto is an Attorney: Community Action and Research at the University of Free State Law Clinic and Free State Centre for Human Rights. She holds an LLB degree from the University of Fort Hare. She attended Practical Legal Training at the East London School for Legal Practice and is currently registered for her Master's of Philosophy in Human Rights at the University of Fort Hare. She is very passionate about human rights law and plans to register for a doctorate in human rights upon completion of her Master's degree.