

Eighth Annual International Mercantile Law Conference

First Call for Papers and Participation

The aim of the conference is to bring together scholars and students of all disciplines and fields in Mercantile Law. We will also host a session on inclusive legal education. You may participate as panel organiser, presenter of one paper, chair a session or be an observer.

The Department of Mercantile Law, Faculty of Law, University of the Free State, is organising the 8th Annual International Mercantile Law Conference from 8 – 10 November 2023. The registration fee is R3500 (€150), covering access to all sessions, two lunches, coffee breaks, cocktail function, gala dinner and conference material. Please complete the registration form available on www.ufs.ac.za/AIMLC. The conference will be held in Bloemfontein, South Africa.

Please submit a 900 to 3500 character abstract at www.ufs.ac.za/AIMLC by 30 June 2023. The abstract should include the following: title of paper, full name(s), affiliation, current position, an email address and at least three keywords that best describe the subject of your submission. Announcement of the decision is made within four weeks after submission.

If you want to participate without presenting a paper, i.e. chair a session, evaluate papers, or assist in other ways, please send an email to Prof E Snyman-Van Deventer at snymane@ufs.ac.za.

Please e-mail ncamanen@ufs.ac.za for enquiries on the publication of the conference proceedings.
