

The Dean of the Faculty of Law, Prof Johan Henning, invites you to a lecture in his Prestige Series, which will be delivered by Johan Lubbe (Shareholder in Littler Mendelson P.C. and a U.S. Practice Co-Chair in International Employment Law) on “The globalized workplace – challenges for employers and lawyers”.

Date: Monday, 17 March 2014

Time: 13:00 – 14:00

Place: Auditorium, Pres CR Swart Building, UFS Campus

RSVP: Before or on Friday, 14 March 2014 to Lebo Moshe-Bereng,
Tel: 051 401 3764 or E-mail: MosheBerengMF@ufs.ac.za

We kindly refer you to the short CV of Johan Lubbe.

Johan Lubbe

Mr Lubbe is recognised as a leading international employment lawyer. He provides strategic advice and counselling to multinational employers on a wide range of global employment law, labour relations (including issues related to global supply chain management), international labour standards compliance, human resources, and data privacy matters. Johan also regularly advises foreign companies that do business in the United States (US) on the requirements of US workplace law. He is a frequent speaker on workplace law and data privacy issues and the author of numerous publications.