NAS FACULTY PLANS: FIRST YEAR'S FACE-TO-FACE CLASSES FOR THE FIRST SEMESTER IN 2021

Registered first year students or students yet to register in the Faculty of Natural and Agricultural Sciences are hereby notified that face-to-face classes that were scheduled to commence from the 15th of March 2021 will now only commence from the 23rd of March 2021.

This approach is due to the extended registration period (19th March 2021) in order to allow all students to register and the "no student is left behind" approach.

Students who are registered already can explore their modules on Blackboard just to familiarise themselves with using the platform and to find out which information is available.
