FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: May I register for two degree programmes simultaneously?

A: No, unfortunately not.

Q: May I register for postgraduate modules in the final academic year of my undergraduate degree?

A: No, you first need to complete your undergraduate programme.

Q: Could I complete my final year modules at another institution and still graduate at the UFS?

A: No, students may only register for NQF level 7 modules with total credits of 32 (or for any other exit level modules) at another institution and still graduate with the UFS.

Q: Could I, if registered for the BCom with specialisation in Economics programme, add the modules from the BCom with specialisation in Investment Management programme (that are not included in the first-mentioned programme) and then obtain both degrees simultaneously?

A: No, unfortunately not. You need to do 50% of a new degree and must be registered for a minimum of two years for the new programme.
