WELCOME

The faculty educates teachers in several disciplines. Our primary role is to prepare pre-service teachers for their work in schools, ensuring that they have a strong disciplinary base for their professional work. A second major role is the teaching of in-service educators. The work is informed by, and closely related to our research and community outreach. We bring to our work a keen interest in the local context, using it as an opportunity for exploring issues that are universal in education. We work closely with schools and other sites of education, and attempt to keep theory and practice in dialogue with one another. The faculty offers a wide range of non-selection undergraduate certificates, diplomas, and degrees, as well as postgraduate certificates, honours, master's, and doctoral study programmes.

Students in our undergraduate Bachelor of Education (BEd) degree (offered in Pre-school and Foundation, Intermediate, Senior, and FET phases) are preparing to be teachers in primary and secondary schools. The key teaching and learning tenet of the programme is reflection, with an emphasis on teaching prospective teachers about teaching, as opposed to teaching them only how to teach.

DISCLAIMER – IMPORTANT NOTICE

Kindly take note that this faculty programme booklet is aimed at prospective undergraduate students wishing to apply for a place at the University of the Free State (“UFS”) and whom wish to start their studies at the UFS during the 2020 academic year. The faculty programme booklet accordingly describes and outlines the programmes and services offered by the UFS, as well as the minimum admission requirements for each programme, but must be read with the policies, rules and regulations of the UFS (as may be amended from time to time). In order to be considered for selection for a programme, an applicant is required to comply with the programme’s minimum admission criteria in respect of the total AP score, subject specific requirements (as determined per programme), and faculty/department’s specific requirements. However, due to limited space, fulfilling all the minimum entry (admission) requirements does not guarantee acceptance to study at the UFS, or entrance into any particular programme offered by the UFS.

The UFS makes every effort to ensure that the information provided in this faculty programme booklet is accurate and up-to-date at the time of going to press. However, it may be necessary for the UFS to make some changes to the information presented in the faculty programme booklet following publication – for example, where it is necessary to reflect changes in policy, practice or theory, or if an accrediting body necessitates requirements to be amended. Furthermore, certain programmes may only be offered if there is a sufficient number of applicants.

The UFS undertakes to take all reasonable steps to provide the services (including, but not limited to, presentation of the programmes) described in the faculty programme booklet. It does not, however guarantee the provision of such services or the presentation of any or all programmes described herein. Should circumstances beyond the control of the UFS interfere with its ability to provide the services or presentation of any programme described herein, the UFS undertakes to use all reasonable steps to minimise any disruption to the services.

Furthermore, the UFS reserves its right to make amendments to admission requirements if and when necessary. It reserves the right to withdraw, wholly or in part, the delivery of programmes. Applicants for, and students in programmes affected, will be informed in advance of the commencement of their studies for the academic year concerned.

This qualification is also suitable for students who are already in possession of at least a first Bachelor’s degree, and wish to develop expertise for education-related careers, such as instructors and trainers. The duration of the Postgraduate Certificate in Education is one year of full-time study. Contact +27 51 401 9685 for more information.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES OPEN TO BEd AND PGCE GRADUATES

The above programmes comprise a range of qualifications, focusing on:

- professional training of prospective educators; and
- continuing education and development of the education corps.

The following career prospects apply:

- Professionally qualified educators for the Pre-school, Foundation, Intermediate, Senior, and Further Education phases.
- Specialists in the fields of Education Management, Curriculum Studies, Inclusive Education, Support Teaching, Education Policy, and Philosophy and Education as a science.
- Experts in education-related careers, such as instructors, trainers, education policy analysts, and lecturers in the higher-education sector.
- The BEd offers, among others, excellent training in the knowledge, skills, expertise, and techniques that have a bearing on developing autonomy, responsibility, and interpersonal relationships, as well as rendering an expert service as a teacher, manager, and subject expert.
- Career opportunities for students specialising in technological education. The Bachelor of Education (BEd) in technology-related university subjects is a focused qualification, providing students the opportunity to obtain a technology-directed teaching degree for qualifying as a professional teacher in the Further Education and Training phase.

The BEd qualification is also suitable for the development of expertise in teaching-related careers such as instructors; trainers; lecturers/doctors/professors at higher-education (tertiary) institutions; supervisors and/or managers in technology-related industries; managers of workshops, community centres, and factories; experts in loss control; forestry; draughtsmen; designers; etc. Entrepreneurial opportunities are unlimited and an appropriate choice of subjects (for example, Business Management) opens up the opportunity to establish your own business.

POSTGRADUATE STUDIES

Programme Director (acting): Prof Jan Nieuwenhuis

In the postgraduate area, we offer honours, master's, and doctoral programmes. Research in these programmes focuses on issues of teaching and learning in specific disciplines, as well as on matters that are more general, such as social issues and curriculum development. Each year, the faculty produces large numbers of honours and master's graduates in critical areas such as Curriculum Studies, Psychology of Education, Comparative Education and Education Management, Philosophy and Policy Studies in Education, and Higher Education Studies.

The new BEd (Hons) degree was introduced in 2018 and is offered on a full-time (one year) or part-time (two year) basis. This flexibility allows full-time employed educators to take the programme on a part-time basis. Students can select a specialisation in Curriculum studies, Psychology in Education, Management and Governance for Early Childhood Development and Learning. The new Honours degree includes a research module that is ideal in preparing students for the master's degree.
