

Nursing Programmes: 2019

Programme	Duration, NQF Level and credits	*Last intake
Bachelor of Social Sciences in Nursing (BSocSci (Nursing)) [Undergraduate] [SANC: General, Psychiatric, Community Health and Midwife]	4 years NQF Level 8 584 credits	31 December 2019
Advanced University Diploma [Speciality]	1 year NQF Level 7	31 December 2019
Advanced Midwifery and Neonatology [SANC: Advanced Midwifery and Neonatology]	120 credits
Child Psychiatric Nursing [SANC: Child Psychiatric Nursing]	120 credits
Critical Care Nursing: General [SANC: Critical Care Nursing]	120 credits
Forensic Nursing [SANC: No registration]	120 credits
Healthcare Management [SANC: Nursing Administration]	124 credits
Nursing Education [SANC: Nursing Education]	128 credits
Occupational Health Nursing [SANC: Occupational Health Nursing Science]	136 credits
Operating Theatre Nursing Science [SANC: Operating Theatre Nursing]	120 credits
Paediatric Nursing [SANC: Child Health Nursing]	120 credits
Primary Clinical Healthcare [SANC: Clinical Nursing Science, Health Assessment, Treatment and Care]	120 credits
Psychiatric Nursing [SANC: Psychiatric Nursing Science]	120 credits
Postgraduate Diploma in HIV and AIDS [SANC: No registration]	1 year NQF Level 8 120 credits	N.A.

- * According to the South African Nursing Council (SANC) Circular 7/2016 Legacy Nursing Qualifications are phasing out. The last intake for these programmes is 31 December 2019.
- A programme will not be offered if a sufficient number of enrolments cannot be secured to render the programme sustainable.