

Election to the Council of the University of the Free State

Motivation for the candidate Mr HH Shimutwiken

Henry Homateni Shimutwiken is a dedicated a committed convocat of the University of Free State who is making impact in the legal sector in Namibia. Henry has been a student leader at the University which will enhance his ability to contribute to the university oversight and strategic direction. His legal expertise and commitment to serving the university community will add value to the work of the university council. The university council representatives from convocation play a key role in ensuring the university continues to develop and hone the experience and perspectives of convocation in the leadership of the university.

I am confident that Henry will make a significant contribution in ensuring the university develops as a site of research and development that makes a meaningful contribution to the community, economy and the world.

I therefore nominate Homateni as a representative of convocation.
