ABOUT THE UFS

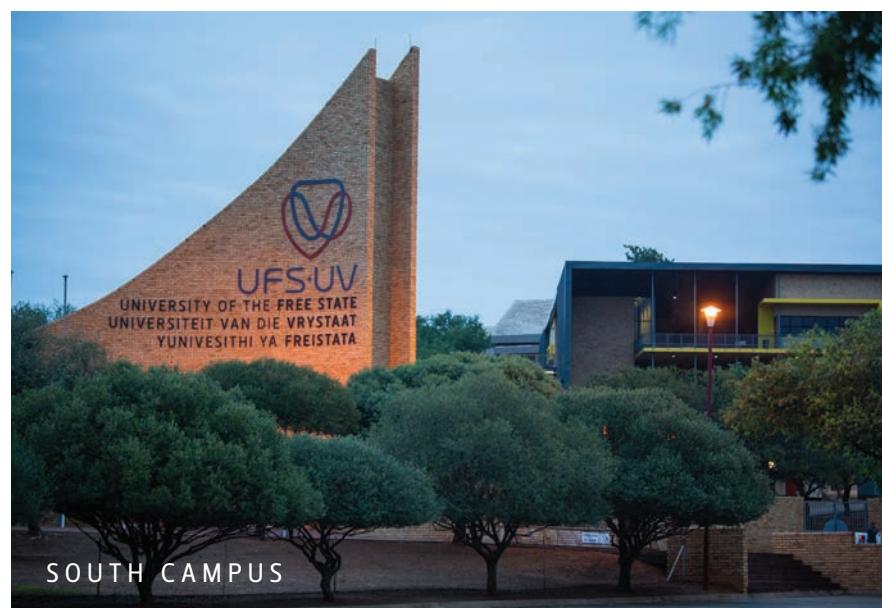

The University of the Free State (UFS) is one of the oldest institutions of higher education in South Africa.

It opened its doors in 1904 in Bloemfontein as the Grey University College, with six students in the Humanities. Since then, the institution has grown to more than 40 000 students, spread over three campuses and across seven faculties (Economic and Management Sciences, Education, Health Sciences, the Humanities, Law, Natural and Agricultural Sciences, Theology and Religion).

Most of the students are located on the Bloemfontein Campus, with the Qwaqwa Campus situated in the picturesque Eastern Free State, serving a rapidly-growing number of rural students from the immediate area and surrounding provinces. The South Campus – also situated in Bloemfontein – serves as the centre for distance-learning programmes offered by the UFS, as well as alternative access to higher education for promising students who have not obtained the required marks in their final school examinations.

Over the years, the university has grown into an education hub which has positioned itself on the global stage, promoting research excellence, with exceptionally talented scholars and students who are recognised the world over, as well as alumni who have grown into influential leaders in society.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE UFS CREST OVER MORE THAN A CENTURY

1904

Up to 1935, the same coat of arms was used as the Grey College School.

1935

By 1935, with the name change to University College of the Orange Free State, the coat of arms fell into disuse, especially among students.

1947

In 1947, an agreement between management and students led to the new motto Per Fidem ad Sapientiam (Through faith to wisdom).

1950

In 1952, it was changed to In Deo Sapientiae Lux (In God is the light of wisdom).

The traditional orange, white and blue, linking the UFS to the South African national colours, changed in the late 1990s.

The orange was replaced by cherry red.

UNIVERSITY OF THE FREE STATE
UNIVERSITEIT VAN DIE VRYSTAAT
YUNIVESITHI YA FREISTATA

2011

The academic brand - the historic University of the Free State crest that has been the symbol of the university since 1952, has evolved to embrace the aesthetic expectations of the stakeholders. The shape of the traditional academic shield has been simplified and contemporised. Much of the symbolism of the crest remains intact, acknowledging the location of the UFS brand as one of the country's premier institutions of higher education, with a proud history of academic excellence and an ever evolving, vibrant culture.

GUEST SPEAKER

MR G KHOSA

CEO: National Education Collaboration Trust

enrolling for a postgraduate diploma in Public Policy and Administration at the University of the Witwatersrand. Mr Khosa then completed a master's degree in Management, Public and Development Management, after which his career soon reached significant heights in the field of education – leading to his current position as Chief Executive Officer of the National Education Collaboration Trust (NECT).

Early in his career, Mr Khosa worked as a policy analyst and senior manager at the Centre for Education Policy Development during the 1990s, before joining the Human Sciences Research Council as a research manager where

A teacher by profession, Godwin Khosa started his tertiary training in the early 1990s with a BA in Education from the University of the North, after matriculating from Risinga High School. He completed an honours degree in Geography at the University of South Africa, before he honed his research skills as research manager in the early 2000s before proceeding to JET Education Services. Initially, he served as a team leader in an education-transformation programme in Limpopo, and later as the organisation's Programme Director before being appointed as CEO in 2009. He has worked on major multi-year school-development projects and developed a successful model of systemic school improvement. Under Mr Khosa's leadership, JET redefined its role, categorising itself as a delivery-support organisation, using its expertise and knowledge to support the government's education-reform agenda.

Mr Khosa is often invited to address delegates at conferences, as was the case for the 2018 Education Conversations organised by Kagiso Trust and the University of Johannesburg where he explained the impact of the 4th Industrial Revolution on education.

DEAN'S MEDAL

AWARDED TO A FINAL-YEAR STUDENT WHO ACHIEVED THE BEST RESULTS IN RESPECT OF A FIRST BACHELOR'S DEGREE IN THE FACULTY OF EDUCATION

VAN DER MERWE, Stefanie*

Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase Teaching

The Main Procession graduation gowns – embroidered with rich diversity

South Africa, and the Free State in particular, has a long-standing friendship with our neighbouring country, Lesotho.

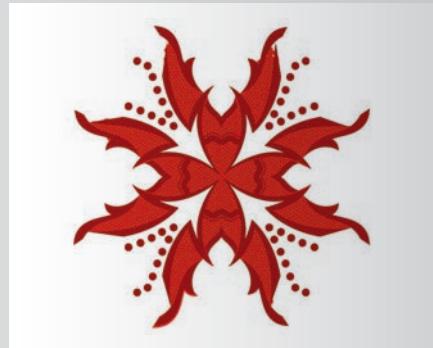

Through a shared history, we have become co-creators of our futures. For this reason, the UFS decided to incorporate our tradition with that of the Basotho in the design of our Main Procession graduation gowns.

The gowns are inspired by the Seanamarena – the traditional Basotho blanket. The different patterns on the Seanamarena indicate the status one holds in the Basotho nation or reflect the occasion being celebrated. Keeping the Seanamarena pattern in mind, we combined our traditional academic designs with that of the Basotho nation.

YOKE PATTERNS

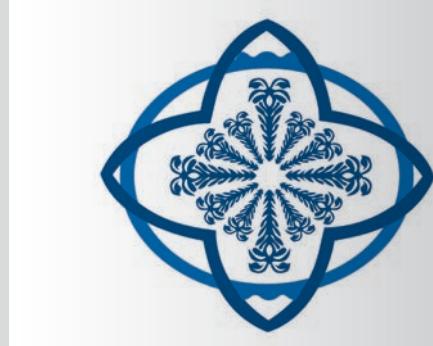

Yoke pattern for the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor

This Seanamarena pattern is an interpretation of a design – used exclusively for the king and chiefs – which means “to swear by the king”. This blanket has the highest status of all Basotho blankets.

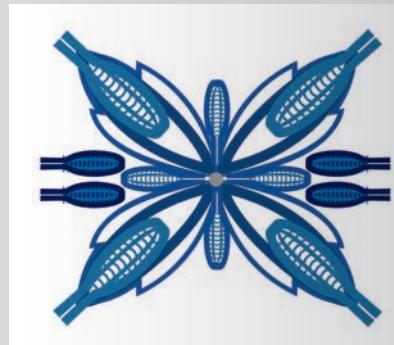

Yoke pattern for the Chairperson of the Council

This Seanamarena Victorian crest motif appeared after the visit of the Prince of Wales to Lesotho in 1925, which made a profound impression on the local people. Customers refer to this blanket as ‘lesiba’ – meaning feathers – when buying it.

Yoke pattern for the Vice-Rector

This Seanamarena Poone design symbolises good crops, wealth, and fertility. The Poone is given as a present to honour an important visitor.

Yoke pattern for Registrar

The same Seanamarena Poone design used for the Vice-Rector applies to the Registrar, with some slight design and colour alterations.

The Deans wear gowns made in the colours of the faculties or others which indicate the office they hold.
