ABOUT THE UFS

The University of the Free State (UFS) is one of the oldest institutions of higher education in South Africa.

It opened its doors in 1904 in Bloemfontein as the Grey University College, with six students in the Humanities. Since then, the institution has grown to more than 40 000 students, spread over three campuses and across seven faculties (Economic and Management Sciences, Education, Health Sciences, the Humanities, Law, Natural and Agricultural Sciences, Theology and Religion).

Most of the students are located on the Bloemfontein Campus, with the Qwaqwa Campus situated in the picturesque Eastern Free State, serving a rapidly-growing number of rural students from the immediate area and surrounding provinces. The South Campus – also situated in Bloemfontein – serves as the centre for distance-learning programmes offered by the UFS, as well as alternative access to higher education for promising students who have not obtained the required marks in their final school examinations.

Over the years, the university has grown into an education hub which has positioned itself on the global stage, promoting research excellence, with exceptionally talented scholars and students who are recognised the world over, as well as alumni who have grown into influential leaders in society.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE UFS CREST OVER MORE THAN A CENTURY

1904

Up to 1935, the same coat of arms was used as the Grey College School.

1935

By 1935, with the name change to University College of the Orange Free State, the coat of arms fell into disuse, especially among students.

1947

In 1947, an agreement between management and students led to the new motto Per Fidem ad Sapientiam (Through faith to wisdom).

1950

In 1952, it was changed to In Deo Sapientiae Lux (In God is the light of wisdom).

The traditional orange, white and blue, linking the UFS to the South African national colours, changed in the late 1990s.

The orange was replaced by cherry red.

UNIVERSITY OF THE FREE STATE
UNIVERSITEIT VAN DIE VRYSTAAT
YUNIVESITHI YA FREISTATA

2011

The academic brand - the historic University of the Free State crest that has been the symbol of the university since 1952, has evolved to embrace the aesthetic expectations of the stakeholders. The shape of the traditional academic shield has been simplified and contemporised. Much of the symbolism of the crest remains intact, acknowledging the location of the UFS brand as one of the country's premier institutions of higher education, with a proud history of academic excellence and an ever evolving, vibrant culture.

MR SG MANCHIDI

Head: Corporate Social Investments at Investec

of Johannesburg (UJ). His dissertation topic was Factors necessary to enhance effective implementation of Corporate Social Investment (CSI) in South Africa.

Mr Manchidi first gained experience in the development sector when he joined George Soros' Open Society Foundation as a postgraduate student. Upon graduating, he worked for Accenture as an analyst and management consultant before joining Investec as a CSI consultant in 2003, becoming head of the CSI division in 2005. Under Mr Manchidi's stewardship, Investec CSI received numerous awards and recognitions, including the 2009 Sunday Times Top 100 CSI Leadership Award, and the 2014 Mail

Setlogane Manchidi, Investec's current head of Corporate Social Investments (CSI) in South Africa, completed an honours degree in Social Policy and Management with distinction at the University of Cape Town (UCT) before obtaining a Master of Commerce degree from the University & Guardian Investing in the Future Award for Promaths – one of Investec's flagship programmes.

In 2013, Mr Manchidi received the DHL 2013 Rising Star Award, which recognises and celebrates young talented people who have a capacity for achievement and success and who contribute in an inspirational manner to the future of South Africa. He is also an honorary member of the Golden Key International Honour Society.

Mr Manchidi, a true CSI practitioner at heart, is now also the author of a recently published book, Corporate Social Investment, a guide to creating a meaningful legacy. He continues to share his passion and message aimed at uplifting those less fortunate by writing articles, giving various media interviews, and speaking at schools, universities, strategic planning sessions, and/or conferences.

The Main Procession graduation gowns – embroidered with rich diversity

South Africa, and the Free State in particular, has a long-standing friendship with our neighbouring country, Lesotho.

Through a shared history, we have become co-creators of our futures. For this reason, the UFS decided to incorporate our tradition with that of the Basotho in the design of our Main Procession graduation gowns.

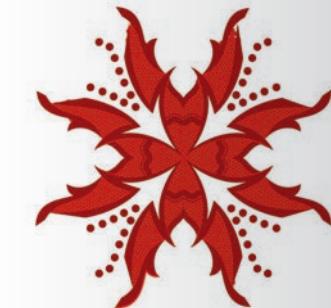

The gowns are inspired by the Seanamarena – the traditional Basotho blanket. The different patterns on the Seanamarena indicate the status one holds in the Basotho nation or reflect the occasion being celebrated. Keeping the Seanamarena pattern in mind, we combined our traditional academic designs with that of the Basotho nation.

YOKE PATTERNS

Yoke pattern for the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor

This Seanamarena pattern is an interpretation of a design – used exclusively for the king and chiefs – which means “to swear by the king”. This blanket has the highest status of all Basotho blankets.

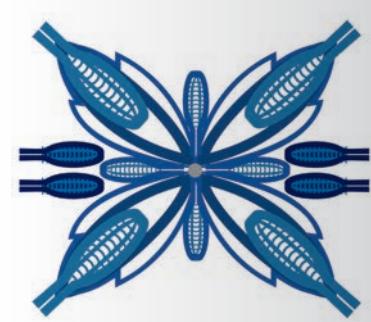

Yoke pattern for the Chairperson of the Council

This Seanamarena Victorian crest motif appeared after the visit of the Prince of Wales to Lesotho in 1925, which made a profound impression on the local people. Customers refer to this blanket as ‘lesiba’ – meaning feathers – when buying it.

Yoke pattern for the Vice-Rector

This Seanamarena Poone design symbolises good crops, wealth, and fertility. The Poone is given as a present to honour an important visitor.

Yoke pattern for Registrar

The same Seanamarena Poone design used for the Vice-Rector applies to the Registrar, with some slight design and colour alterations.

The Deans wear gowns made in the colours of the faculties or others which indicate the office they hold.

CONGRATULATIONS FROM THE ALUMNI OFFICE

Warmest congratulations on your graduation and best wishes for your next adventure! We are very proud of you. We hope that you will stay in touch with your Alma Mater and share your future achievements with other Kovsky alumni.
