Nkosi sikelel' iAfrika

Maluphakanyisw' uphondo lwayo,
Yizwa imithandazo yethu,
Nkosi sikelela, thina lusapho lwayo.
Morena boloka setjhaba sa heso,
O fedise dintwa le matshwenyeho,
O se boloke, O se boloke setjhaba sa heso,
Setjhaba sa South Afrika -
South Afrika.
Uit die blou van onse hemel,
Uit die diepte van ons see,
Oor ons ewige gebergtes,
Waar die kranse antwoord gee,
Sounds the call to come together,
And united we shall stand,
Let us live and strive for freedom,
In South Africa our land.

In order to maintain the dignity of the ceremony, you are requested to take note of the following:

ABOUT THE UFS

The University of the Free State (UFS) is one of the oldest institutions of higher education in South Africa.

It opened its doors in 1904 in Bloemfontein as the Grey University College, with six students in the Humanities. Since then, the institution has grown to more than 40 000 students, spread over three campuses and across seven faculties (Economic and Management Sciences, Education, Health Sciences, the Humanities, Law, Natural and Agricultural Sciences, Theology and Religion).

Most of the students are located on the Bloemfontein Campus, with the Qwaqwa Campus situated in the picturesque Eastern Free State, serving a rapidly-growing number of rural students from the immediate area and surrounding provinces. The South Campus – also situated in Bloemfontein – serves as the centre for distance-learning programmes offered by the UFS, as well as alternative access to higher education for promising students who have not obtained the required marks in their final school examinations.

Over the years, the university has grown into an education hub which has positioned itself on the global stage, promoting research excellence, with exceptionally talented scholars and students who are recognised the world over, as well as alumni who have grown into influential leaders in society.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE UFS CREST OVER MORE THAN A CENTURY

1904

Up to 1935, the same coat of arms was used as the Grey College School.

1935

By 1935, with the name change to University College of the Orange Free State, the coat of arms fell into disuse, especially among students.

1947

In 1947, an agreement between management and students led to the new motto Per Fidem ad Sapientiam (Through faith to wisdom).

1950

In 1952, it was changed to In Deo Sapientiae Lux (In God is the light of wisdom). The traditional orange, white and blue, linking the UFS to the South African national colours, changed in the late 1990s.

The orange was replaced by cherry red.

UNIVERSITY OF THE FREE STATE
UNIVERSITEIT VAN DIE VRYSTAAT
YUNIVESITHI YA FREISTATA

2011

The academic brand - the historic University of the Free State crest that has been the symbol of the university since 1952, has evolved to embrace the aesthetic expectations of the stakeholders. The shape of the traditional academic shield has been simplified and contemporised. Much of the symbolism of the crest remains intact, acknowledging the location of the UFS brand as one of the country's premier institutions of higher education, with a proud history of academic excellence and an ever evolving, vibrant culture.

MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR AND VICE-CHANCELLOR

Dear Student

Congratulations to our newest alumni, the Class of 2018! Today is a memorable day and a culmination of the time you spent here at the University of the Free State (UFS).

You are not only becoming an alumnus of this great 114-year-old institution, but you are now also part of a fraternity of exceptional individuals who have walked across the stage before you. Graduation is a time to recognise the completion of a programme of study and to celebrate a beginning, the commencing of a new chapter in your life. It is a time to embrace new opportunities.

You have worked hard to achieve this special moment in your academic career. May you continue to grow as a lifelong learner while serving as a member of your community and our alumni family.

Our alumni include educators, health professionals, scientists, entrepreneurs, agriculturists, artists, humanitarians, legal professionals, clergy, sportsmen and women, etc., who contribute to the welfare and growth of so many people in our beautiful country and beyond.

You have accomplished much, and you have even greater potential than when you began your studies at Kovsies. You have earned a degree, but you have done much more than just grow intellectually. You have also matured emotionally and socially. Your newly acquired education will serve you well throughout your life, and the friendships and memories you made here are something I hope you will return to often.

As you move towards your professional career, do not be afraid of the challenges ahead. Put your hard-earned knowledge to good use. I believe that each of you has the ability to prosper and use your talents.

This is a significant day for all of us who have been involved in the lives of our graduates. For us at Kovsies – and for your fellow students, friends, and loved ones, this is a time to celebrate and acknowledge your accomplishments, and to bless you with our confidence and hope as you embark on the next stage of your journey where you will have opportunities and challenges as never before to live up to the goals you have set for yourself.

May you look back with a sense of pride, knowing that you possess the required knowledge and skills to build and succeed in your chosen career.

The UFS is, after all, a place that inspires excellence and transforms lives.

Best wishes

Prof Francis Petersen

GUEST SPEAKER

LESEDI MAKHURANE

Lecturer: Stellenbosch University Business School

Originally from northern Limpopo but with Zimbabwe and UK nationality, Lesedi Makhurane resides in Cape Town. He is a lecturer at the Stellenbosch University Executive Development (USB-ED), specialising in strategic organisational development, personal mastery and leadership, multi-stakeholder collaboration, and executive coaching. A former Director of Organisational Development at the University of Cape Town (UCT), he is a world-class facilitator with extensive experience of guiding diverse stakeholders to resolve complex and messy contemporary challenges locally and abroad.

Makhurane completed a BA (Economics and Psychology) at the University of Zimbabwe, a BCom Honours (Management Information Systems) at UCT, an MA (Communications) at the University of Leicester and is busy with a PhD at the University of Middlesex, UK.

Some of the complex consulting assignments led by him, include the first pilot municipal performance management in South Africa; a nation-wide business development initiative for over 3 000 entrepreneurs; and redesigning Brand South Africa. He also coached, facilitated, and assessed over 1 000 coaches. Currently, Makhurane lectures Personal Mastery and Leadership in Practice on the new Manager Development Programme at USB-ED. Next year he will be rolling out a customised programme to improve the professional skills of Circuit Managers in the Eastern Cape.

His broad mission is to develop people who can simultaneously hold a professional and transformative perspective to manifest genuine and sustainable change and human progress. Makhurane recognises that this moment in South Africa is calling on all of us to adopt a broader perspective if we are to effectively tackle the multi-dimensional and interlocking challenges that confront us. He is excited by the prospect of assisting this process in a modest way.

The Main Procession graduation gowns – embroidered with rich diversity

South Africa, and the Free State in particular, has a long-standing friendship with our neighbouring country, Lesotho.

Through a shared history, we have become co-creators of our futures. For this reason, the UFS decided to incorporate our tradition with that of the Basotho in the design of our Main Procession graduation gowns.

The gowns are inspired by the Seanamarena – the traditional Basotho blanket. The different patterns on the Seanamarena indicate the status one holds in the Basotho nation or reflect the occasion being celebrated. Keeping the Seanamarena pattern in mind, we combined our traditional academic designs with that of the Basotho nation.

YOKE PATTERNS

Yoke pattern for the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor

This Seanamarena pattern is an interpretation of a design – used exclusively for the king and chiefs – which means “to swear by the king”. This blanket has the highest status of all Basotho blankets.

Yoke pattern for the Chairperson of the Council

This Seanamarena Victorian crest motif appeared after the visit of the Prince of Wales to Lesotho in 1925, which made a profound impression on the local people. Customers refer to this blanket as ‘lesiba’ – meaning feathers – when buying it.

Yoke pattern for the Vice-Rector

This Seanamarena Poone design symbolises good crops, wealth, and fertility. The Poone is given as a present to honour an important visitor.

Yoke pattern for Registrar

The same Seanamarena Poone design used for the Vice-Rector applies to the Registrar, with some slight design and colour alterations.

The Deans wear gowns made in the colours of the faculties or others which indicate the office they hold.
