Ek nooi julle uit om as trotse alumni by julle alma mater betrokke te bly.

Gebruik dit om positiewe verandering teweeg te bring, om die status quo te bevraagteken en om julle passies met vasberadenheid na te streef. Die toekoms lyk dalk onseker, maar dit is gevul met moontlikhede wat wag vir julle unieke talente en bydraes. Waar julle nou die volgende avontuur aanpak, neem die lesse saam wat julle geleer het, asook die moed om julle eie weg te baan.

DOCTORAL DEGREES

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY WITH SPECIALISATION IN BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

SITHOLE, Cuthbert

Cuthbert Sithole holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management and Entrepreneurship as well as a Master's degree in Strategic Management, both from the Chinhoyi University of Technology. He has held multiple roles with Eagleliner Coaches and Intercity Express as a sales consultant and operations supervisor in Zimbabwe, from 2015 to 2018. He is currently a founding member of Eleven Centimetres, a logistics and shipping company established in 2023, which provides product sourcing and shipping services from China to Zimbabwe.

With his thesis titled: CORPORATE ENTREPRENEURSHIP ADOPTION AND ORGANISATIONAL PERFORMANCE IN ZIMBABWEAN BANKS, the candidate examines how corporate entrepreneurship drives organisational performance in the Zimbabwean banking industry. The candidate analyses how internal dynamics and the regulatory institutional environment shape entrepreneurial outcomes. Using a quantitative design and a structural equation model, data was collected from bankers across five Zimbabwean banks. The findings confirm that corporate entrepreneurship significantly enhances organisational performance. More specifically, the candidate demonstrates that a weak regulatory institutional environment negatively moderates this relationship, thereby constraining the gains from entrepreneurial initiatives. Further to this, organisational engagement was not found to exert a moderating effect and risk-taking and new business venturing were found to be strategically important but underperforming dimensions. This work makes a substantive theoretical and policy contribution to the existing body of knowledge by clarifying the mechanisms through which entrepreneurship translates into performance in constrained institutional environments.

Supervisor: Prof J Coetzee

Co-supervisor: Prof HA Koloba

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY WITH SPECIALISATION IN ECONOMICS

MAKUVAZA, Leonard Takunda

Leonard Makuvaza was born in Marondera in 1989. He received his secondary education in Zimbabwe at St Augustine's High School where he matriculated in 2007. He obtained his Honours degree in Agricultural Economics in 2011 at the University of Zimbabwe, and a Master's degree in Economics in 2016 from the University of Namibia. He currently serves as a technical specialist at the International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD), supporting programmes in South Africa and Gambia.

With his thesis titled: ADVANCED SURVIVAL MODELLING FOR STOCK MARKET DELISTING ON THE JOHANNESBURG STOCK EXCHANGE, the candidate contributes to scholarship on stock market delisting focusing on how firms transition through recurrent financial distress, recovery, and eventual delisting events. Existing literature treats firm delisting as a single transition from a listed to a delisted state. The candidate adopts a multistate survival framework to analyse delisting. Using advanced survival models commonly applied in epidemiology, and JSE financial reporting data, the candidate finds that firm financial distress is rampant, financial recovery is rare and protracted, and the often-ignored intermediate financial distress variables such as financial distress spells and consecutive income losses explain the risk of delisting. The thesis demonstrates that delisting is the endpoint of a preventable financial deterioration process, thereby making a case for early-warning mechanisms that recognise and act on intermediate distress signals long before firms exit the market.

NATIONAL ANTHEM OF SOUTH AFRICA

Nkosi sikelel' iAfrika
Maluphakanyisw' uphondo lwayo,
Yizwa imithandazo yethu,
Nkosi sikelela, thina lusapho lwayo.
Morena boloka setjhaba sa heso,
O fedise dintwa le matshwenyeho,
O se boloke, O se boloke setjhaba sa heso,
Setjhaba sa South Afrika -
South Afrika.

Uit die blou van onse hemel,
Uit die diepte van ons see,
Oor ons ewige gebergtes,
Waar die kranse antwoord gee,
Sounds the call to come together,
And united we shall stand,
Let us live and strive for freedom,
In South Africa our land.
