DOCTORAL DEGREES

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY WITH SPECIALISATION IN POLITICAL SCIENCE

PKALYA, Dominic Ruto (Posthumously)

Dominic Ruto Pkalya was born in Kenya on 19 October 1976. He received his secondary education in Kapenguria, where he matriculated from Chewoyet High School in 1994. He obtained the degree Bachelor of Arts in Government and Public Administration at Moi University in 2000. Dominic completed his Master of Arts in Media, Conflict and Peace Studies at the University of Peace in San José, Costa Rica in 2007. He started his career as a Program Officer, specialising in Disaster and Conflict Management in Nairobi, Kenya in October 2002. Dominic Ruto Pkalya passed away in Nairobi, Kenya on 28 August 2025.

With his thesis titled: HUMAN RIGHTS IMPLICATIONS OF CIVIL SOCIETY ORGANIZATIONS' COUNTERING VIOLENT EXTREMISM INTERVENTIONS IN THE COASTAL REGION OF KENYA, the candidate makes an important contribution to understanding how Civil Society Organizations (CSOs) have expanded Kenya's Countering Violent Extremism (CVE) agenda, while simultaneously generating human rights concerns. Using an extensive literature review, 72 in-depth interviews, 15 focus group discussions and sustained field observations conducted over two years, the candidate provides a nuanced account of the complex working environment of CSOs. Grounded in Bjørgo's Crime Prevention Theory, the study demonstrates that while CSOs play an important role in reducing violent extremism, their use of problematic terminology and inadequate contextual understanding inadvertently undermine the rights of beneficiaries and communities. The findings underscore the need for more reflexive CVE practice, stronger human rights safeguards, and the development of a dedicated theoretical framework for the CVE field — an area where existing scholarship has predominantly focused on state-led approaches.

Supervisor: Dr A Grobbelaar

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY WITH SPECIALISATION IN SOCIOLOGY

ACKERMANN, Leáne

Leáne Ackermann was born in Bloemfontein on 3 December 1968. She matriculated at Brebner High School in 1986 and obtained her Bachelor of Social Science (BSocSci) degree at the University of the Free State (UFS) in 1989. Specialising in Sociology, she graduated with her BSocSci Honours degree in 1991 and her Master of Social Science in 2002, both with distinction. She obtained her Doctor of Philosophy with Specialisation in Sociology (PhD) at the UFS in 2026, and is currently a lecturer in the Department of Sociology.

With her thesis titled: IDENTITY AND THE WORKPLACE: A NARRATIVE STUDY OF UNDEREMPLOYED WOMEN, the candidate offers a sociological perspective on underemployment. The underemployment of highly educated women is particularly compelling as it reveals a growing paradox in many societies, where being highly educated does not translate into full employment. The research follows a qualitative design, and narratives are used as a methodological tool to investigate the participants' experiences. An analysis of the data suggests that underemployment has a negative impact on the lives and identity of highly educated women as they struggle to come to terms with their underemployed status. The study significantly contributes to refining sociological perspectives on underemployment as it relates to identity, and also contributes to the knowledge base on underemployment in South Africa. This study foregrounds the "hidden" problem of underemployment and human cost of underutilised labour.

NATIONAL ANTHEM OF SOUTH AFRICA

Nkosi sikelel' iAfrika
Maluphakanyisw' uphondo lwayo,
Yizwa imithandazo yethu,
Nkosi sikelela, thina lusapho lwayo.
Morena boloka setjhaba sa heso,
O fedise dintwa le matshwenyeho,
O se boloke, O se boloke setjhaba sa heso,
Setjhaba sa South Afrika -
South Afrika.

Uit die blou van onse hemel,
Uit die diepte van ons see,
Oor ons ewige gebergtes,
Waar die kranse antwoord gee,
Sounds the call to come together,
And united we shall stand,
Let us live and strive for freedom,
In South Africa our land.
