ABOUT THE UFS

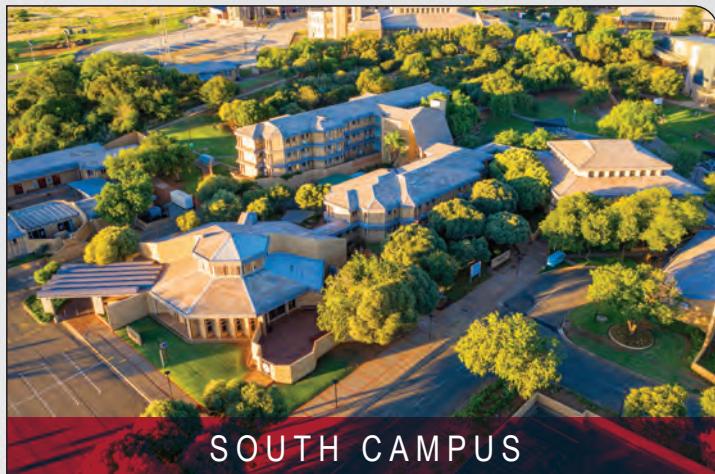

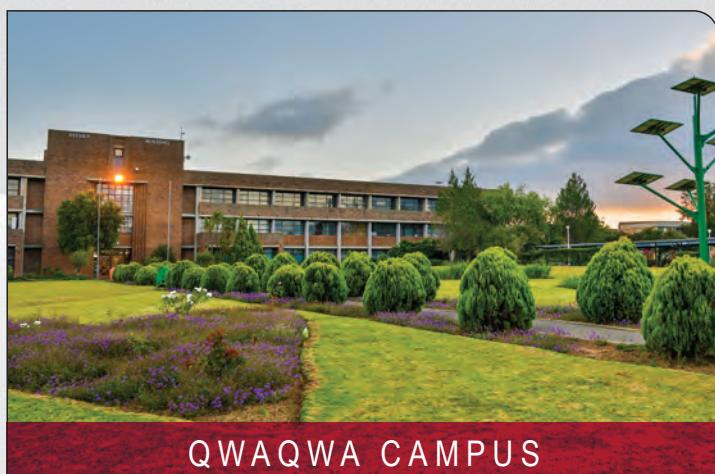

The University of the Free State (UFS) has a proud history as one of the oldest, most respected institutions of higher education in South Africa. It opened its doors in Bloemfontein in 1904 as the Grey University College, with six students in the Humanities. Today it is a multi-campus institution, with two diverse campuses in Bloemfontein and one in Qwaqwa in the scenic Eastern Free State, accommodating more than 40 000 students in its seven faculties (Economic and Management Sciences, Education, Health Sciences, the Humanities, Law, Natural and Agricultural Sciences, Theology and Religion), with an increasing number of international students and associates, and an ever-widening scope of active involvement in and contribution to its surrounding communities.

For the past 118 years, the UFS has been delivering quality graduates who have made their mark in various sectors. What sets the institution apart is its holistic student support initiatives, enabling it to achieve some of the highest success rates in the country. Delivering students who are in high demand in the global job market, remains a top priority. An established network of industry partners and close collaboration with the public and private sectors, as well as a continuous process of transformation and curriculum renewal, dovetail to produce highly employable graduates.

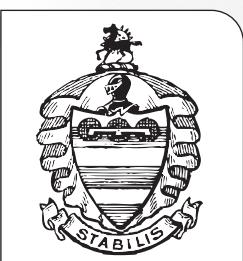

UFS research efforts are driven by dedicated scholars, some of whom are international leaders in their fields, with industry and social impact and real-world application.

Through the principle of engaged scholarship, the UFS responds to societal needs, using its scholarly and professional expertise with an intentional public purpose and benefit.

The UFS is an institution that goes all out to provide its students and staff with an outstanding university experience. Anchored in a value bedrock of social justice, respect, and caring, the institution has managed to remain steadfastly relevant in a challenging and ever-changing national higher education landscape.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE UFS CREST OVER MORE THAN A CENTURY

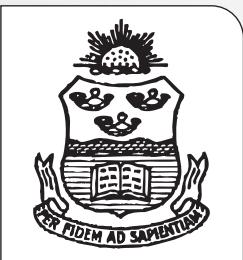

1904

Up to 1935, the same coat of arms was used as the Grey College School.

1935

By 1935, with the name change to University College of the Orange Free State, the coat of arms fell into disuse, especially among students.

1947

In 1947, an agreement between management and students led to the new motto Per Fidem ad Sapientiam (Through faith to wisdom).

1950

In 1952, it was changed to In Deo Sapientiae Lux (In God is the light of wisdom). The traditional orange, white and blue, linking the UFS to the South African national colours, changed in the late 1990s.

The orange was replaced by cherry red.

The academic brand - the historic University of the Free State crest that has been the symbol of the university since 1952, has evolved to embrace the aesthetic expectations of the stakeholders.

The shape of the traditional academic shield has been simplified and contemporised. Much of the symbolism of the crest remains intact, acknowledging the location of the UFS brand as one of the country's premier institutions of higher education, with a proud history of academic excellence and an ever evolving, vibrant culture.

MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR AND VICE-CHANCELLOR

Dear Student

Welcome to the graduation ceremony of the University of the Free State (UFS).

We are especially pleased that your graduation ceremony can take place in person and in the presence of the university congregation.

Today is a memorable day and a culmination of the time you spent here at the UFS. You are not only becoming an alumnus of this great 118-year-old institution, but you are now also part of a fraternity of exceptional individuals who have graduated before you.

Congratulations to our graduands – this is a special day indeed and it is certainly heart-warming to see so many of you being conferred these well-deserved qualifications today. You should be proud of your achievements – take a moment to celebrate and acknowledge YOU.

At the same time, you would not have reached this milestone without the support of many people around you – let us also acknowledge and express gratitude to your support structures – the parents, family, friends, guardians, and lecturers who made it possible for you to be here today.

As you venture into the world, you will find yourself contemplating what your role in the world is and what kind of a world you want to live in. Sometimes the road ahead can be challenging and complex – however, remember that the skills of hard work, resilience, determination, and focus will help you forge ahead. After all, these are the skills that have helped you to achieve your UFS qualification.

Also be mindful that collective and individual responsibility is important to our success – this became very clear during the pandemic. Reach out to others, lend a helping hand wherever you can, support each other, involve yourselves in your communities, and most of all, be kind and humane. Be mindful of these in everything that you do.

Graduands, I am proud of your resilience. You are truly inspiring, and I am confident that you are well prepared to embrace the future and flourish in anything you set your mind to.

Be brave, be bold, and make a difference in this world.

Best wishes

PROF FW PETERSEN

Beste Student

Welcome by die Universiteit van die Vrystaat se gradeplegtigheid.

Ons is veral bly dat jou gradeplegtigheid in persoon en in die teenwoordigheid van die universiteitsgemeenskap kan plaasvind.

Vandag is 'n onvergeetlike dag en 'n hoogtepunt van die tyd wat jy hier aan die UV deurgebring het. Jy word nie net 'n alumnus van hierdie wonderlike 118-jaroue instelling nie, maar jy is nou ook deel van 'n broederskap van uitsonderlike individue wat voor jou gegradeer het.

Baie geluk aan ons graduandi – vandag is voorwaar 'n spesiale dag en dit is inderdaad hartverblydend om te sien dat hierdie welverdiende kwalifikasies aan so baie van julle toegeken word. Jy moet trots wees op jou prestasies – neem 'n oomblik om JOU te vier en erkenning te gee.

Terselfdertyd sou julle nie hierdie mylpaal bereik het sonder die ondersteuning van baie mense rondom julle nie – laat ons ook erkenning gee en ons dank uitspreek teenoor julle ondersteuningstrukture – die ouers, gesinne, vriende, voogde en dosente wat dit vir julle moontlik gemaak het om vandag hier te wees.

Waar julle die wêreld aandurf, sal julle vind dat julle dalk wonder oor wat julle rol in die wêreld is en die soort wêreld waarin julle wil leef. Die pad vorentoe kan soms uitdagend en kompleks wees – onthou egter dat die vaardighede van harde werk, veerkrachtigheid, vasberadenheid en fokus julle sal help om vooruit te gaan. Dit is immers die vaardighede wat julle gehelp het om julle UV-kwalifikasies te behaal.

Dink ook daaraan dat gemeenskaplike en individuele verantwoordelikheid belangrik is vir ons sukses – dit het baie duidelik geword tydens die pandemie.

Reik uit na ander mense, sit 'n handjie by waar julle ook al kan, ondersteun mekaar, raak betrokke by julle gemeenskappe, en bowenal, wees welwillend en menslik. Hou dit in gedagte in alles wat julle doen.

Graduandi, ek is trots op julle veerkrachtigheid. Julle is waarskynlik inspirerend, en ek is vol vertroue dat julle goed voorbereid is om die toekoms aan te gryp en te floreer in eniglets wat julle aanpak.

Wees dapper, wees sterk en maak 'n verskil in hierdie wêreld.

Beste wense

HONORARY DOCTORATE

JUSTICE ALBIE SACHS

Justice Albie Sachs is an activist and former judge in the Constitutional Court of South Africa (1994–2009). He began practising as an advocate at the Cape Bar at the age of 21, defending people charged under the racial statutes and security laws of apartheid. After being arrested and placed in solitary confinement for more than five months, Justice Sachs went into exile to England in 1966. He spent 11 years studying and teaching law in England, where he completed a PhD at the University of Sussex, and then spent a further 11 years in Mozambique as law professor and legal researcher. In 1988, he lost his right arm and his sight in one eye when a bomb was placed in his car in Maputo, Mozambique.

While working closely with African National Congress (ANC) leader Oliver Tambo in exile, Justice Sachs helped draft the organisation's Code of Conduct, as well as its statutes. He devoted himself to preparations for a new democratic Constitution for South Africa, and returned home as a member of the Constitutional Committee and the National Executive of the ANC. After the first democratic elections in 1994, he was appointed by President Nelson Mandela to serve on the newly established Constitutional Court.

He is the author of several books, including The Jail Diary of Albie Sachs, Soft Vengeance of a Freedom Fighter, and The Strange Alchemy of Life and Law. His latest books are We, the People: Insights of an Activist Judge (2016) and Oliver Tambo's Dream (2017).

COUNCIL MEDALIST

MR NICO JANSE VAN RENSBURG

Mr Nico Janse van Rensburg completed a BSc Quantity Surveying degree at the University of the Free State (UFS) in 1989 before joining the institution's then Department of Physical Planning in 2004, after an impressive career as quantity surveyor. In 2012, he was appointed Senior Director: University Estates, continuously adding value to the infrastructure of our three campuses – totalling more than 500 000 m² – as well as experimental farms and off-campus entities of more than 1 000 ha.

Mr Janse van Rensburg has a persistent green approach that not only reduces the UFS' carbon footprint, but also saves the institution millions of rands in energy usage and maintenance. All newly built facilities on our campuses are based on green building principles, while an overall optimal building management system and indigenous waterwise gardens ensure efficient energy management.

University Estates, through its procurement management and the leadership of Mr Janse van Rensburg, is also one of the main drivers behind the UFS' BBBEE scorecard. He initiated a mentoring and skills transfer strategy by means of joint project appointments, enabling previously disadvantaged firms to eventually be appointed independently for similar projects.

To ensure, among others, aesthetically pleasing buildings that offer value for money, Mr Janse van Rensburg and his team have developed a series of technical manuals that outline material specifications and expectations. Since 2012, he has been instrumental in more than a thousand projects at the UFS. His motto is clearly visible in all the projects he completes: Get things done – within time, budget, quality standards, expectations, and user satisfaction.

DOCTORAL DEGREES

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY WITH SPECIALISATION IN EDUCATION MANAGEMENT

NAIDOO, Rajandran Ramsamy

Rajandran Ramsamy Naidoo was born in Durban on the 23rd of May 1964. He matriculated at Buffelsdale Secondary School, in 1981. He obtained a BA degree in 1985, a Higher Diploma in Education in 1987, a B.Ed. degree in 1992, an Advanced Certificate in Education (with distinction) in 2004, a MEd in 2011 and the PhD in Education Leadership and Management in 2021 at the University of Free State. He started his career as an educator in Piet Retief in 1988, was appointed deputy principal in a deep rural school in KZN in 2000 and in 2003 was appointed principal of a township school in Cape Town.

With his thesis, titled: INSTRUCTIONAL LEADERSHIP ROLES OF SCHOOL MANAGEMENT TEAMS: AN EXPLORATORY STUDY IN FIVE TOWNSHIP SECONDARY SCHOOLS, the candidate contributes to the scholarship on Instructional Leadership in township schools. Via a qualitative approach, interviews, questionnaires, and naturalistic observation were utilized to understand and explain the role of school management teams in the provision of instructional leadership. An eclectic theoretical framework provided the lens through which the data were analyzed. The findings demonstrated that SMTs in township schools operate at different levels of efficiency. Furthermore, schools confront numerous systemic issues such as limited infrastructure, daunting social challenges, and a lack of resources, which have a massive impact on the emotional and cognitive well-being of learners. These require that SMTs implement contingency measures to mitigate the adversities to ensure sound instruction. Although support from subject advisors is relatively good, support in instructional leadership offered by the circuit manager is lacking.

Promotor: Dr BO Plaatjies

THE SEANAMARENA THE TRADITIONAL BASOTHO BLANKET

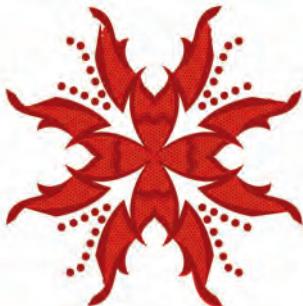

The Main Procession Graduation Gowns – embroidered with rich diversity

South Africa, and the Free State in particular, has a long-standing friendship with our neighbouring country, Lesotho.

Through a shared history, we have become co-creators of our futures. For this reason, the UFS decided to incorporate our tradition with that of the Basotho in the design of our Main Procession graduation gowns.

The gowns are inspired by the Seanamarena – the traditional Basotho blanket. The different patterns on the Seanamarena indicate the status one holds in the Basotho nation or reflect the occasion being celebrated. Keeping the Seanamarena pattern in mind, we combined our traditional academic designs with that of the Basotho nation.

YOKE PATTERNS

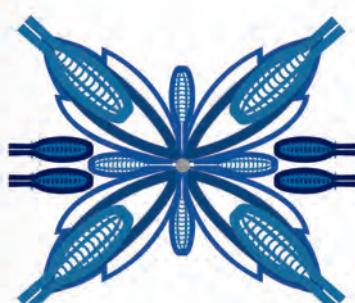

Yoke pattern for the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor

This Seanamarena pattern is an interpretation of a design – used exclusively for the king and chiefs – which means ‘to swear by the king’. This blanket has the highest status of all Basotho blankets.

Yoke pattern for the Chairperson of the Council

This Seanamarena Victorian crest motif appeared after the visit of the Prince of Wales to Lesotho in 1925, which made a profound impression on the local people. Customers refer to this blanket as ‘lesiba’ – meaning feathers – when buying it.

Yoke pattern for the Vice-Rector

This Seanamarena Poone design symbolises good crops, wealth, and fertility. The Poone is given as a present to honour an important visitor.

Yoke pattern for Registrar

The same Seanamarena Poone design used for the Vice-Rector applies to the Registrar, with some slight design and colour alterations.

The Deans wear gowns made in the colours of the faculties, or others which indicate the office they hold.
