ABOUT THE UFS

The University of the Free State (UFS) has a proud history as one of the oldest, most respected institutions of higher education in South Africa. It opened its doors in Bloemfontein in 1904 as the Grey University College, with six students in the Humanities. Today it is a multi-campus institution, with two diverse campuses in Bloemfontein and one in Qwaqwa in the scenic Eastern Free State, accommodating more than 40 000 students in its seven faculties (Economic and Management Sciences, Education, Health Sciences, the Humanities, Law, Natural and Agricultural Sciences, Theology and Religion), with an increasing number of international students and associates, and an ever-widening scope of active involvement in and contribution to its surrounding communities.

For the past 118 years, the UFS has been delivering quality graduates who have made their mark in various sectors. What sets the institution apart is its holistic student support initiatives, enabling it to achieve some of the highest success rates in the country. Delivering students who are in high demand in the global job market, remains a top priority. An established network of industry partners and close collaboration with the public and private sectors, as well as a continuous process of transformation and curriculum renewal, dovetail to produce highly employable graduates.

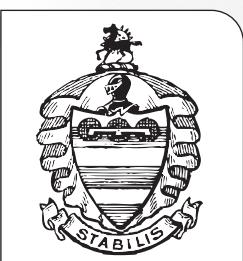

UFS research efforts are driven by dedicated scholars, some of whom are international leaders in their fields, with industry and social impact and real-world application.

Through the principle of engaged scholarship, the UFS responds to societal needs, using its scholarly and professional expertise with an intentional public purpose and benefit.

The UFS is an institution that goes all out to provide its students and staff with an outstanding university experience. Anchored in a value bedrock of social justice, respect, and caring, the institution has managed to remain steadfastly relevant in a challenging and ever-changing national higher education landscape.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE UFS CREST OVER MORE THAN A CENTURY

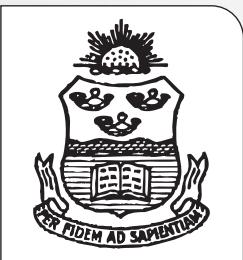

1904

Up to 1935, the same coat of arms was used as the Grey College School.

1935

By 1935, with the name change to University College of the Orange Free State, the coat of arms fell into disuse, especially among students.

1947

In 1947, an agreement between management and students led to the new motto Per Fidem ad Sapientiam (Through faith to wisdom).

1950

In 1952, it was changed to In Deo Sapientiae Lux (In God is the light of wisdom). The traditional orange, white and blue, linking the UFS to the South African national colours, changed in the late 1990s.

The orange was replaced by cherry red.

The academic brand - the historic University of the Free State crest that has been the symbol of the university since 1952, has evolved to embrace the aesthetic expectations of the stakeholders.

The shape of the traditional academic shield has been simplified and contemporised. Much of the symbolism of the crest remains intact, acknowledging the location of the UFS brand as one of the country's premier institutions of higher education, with a proud history of academic excellence and an ever evolving, vibrant culture.

MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR AND VICE-CHANCELLOR

Dear Student

Welcome to the graduation ceremony of the University of the Free State (UFS).

We are especially pleased that your graduation ceremony can take place in person and in the presence of the university congregation.

Today is a memorable day and a culmination of the time you spent here at the UFS. You are not only becoming an alumnus of this great 118-year-old institution, but you are now also part of a fraternity of exceptional individuals who have graduated before you.

Congratulations to our graduands – this is a special day indeed and it is certainly heart-warming to see so many of you being conferred these well-deserved qualifications today. You should be proud of your achievements – take a moment to celebrate and acknowledge YOU.

At the same time, you would not have reached this milestone without the support of many people around you – let us also acknowledge and express gratitude to your support structures – the parents, family, friends, guardians, and lecturers who made it possible for you to be here today.

As you venture into the world, you will find yourself contemplating what your role in the world is and what kind of a world you want to live in. Sometimes the road ahead can be challenging and complex – however, remember that the skills of hard work, resilience, determination, and focus will help you forge ahead. After all, these are the skills that have helped you to achieve your UFS qualification.

Also be mindful that collective and individual responsibility is important to our success – this became very clear during the pandemic. Reach out to others, lend a helping hand wherever you can, support each other, involve yourselves in your communities, and most of all, be kind and humane. Be mindful of these in everything that you do.

Graduands, I am proud of your resilience. You are truly inspiring, and I am confident that you are well prepared to embrace the future and flourish in anything you set your mind to.

Be brave, be bold, and make a difference in this world.

Best wishes

PROF FW PETERSEN

Beste Student

Welcome by die Universiteit van die Vrystaat se gradeplegtigheid.

Ons is veral bly dat jou gradeplegtigheid in persoon en in die teenwoordigheid van die universiteitsgemeenskap kan plaasvind.

Vandag is 'n onvergeetlike dag en 'n hoogtepunt van die tyd wat jy hier aan die UV deurgebring het. Jy word nie net 'n alumnus van hierdie wonderlike 118-jaroue instelling nie, maar jy is nou ook deel van 'n broederskap van uitsonderlike individue wat voor jou gegradeer het.

Baie geluk aan ons graduandi – vandag is voorwaar 'n spesiale dag en dit is inderdaad hartverblydend om te sien dat hierdie welverdiende kwalifikasies aan so baie van julle toegeken word. Jy moet trots wees op jou prestasies – neem 'n oomblik om JOU te vier en erkenning te gee.

Terselfdertyd sou julle nie hierdie mylpaal bereik het sonder die ondersteuning van baie mense rondom julle nie – laat ons ook erkenning gee en ons dank uitspreek teenoor julle ondersteuningstrukture – die ouers, gesinne, vriende, voogde en dosente wat dit vir julle moontlik gemaak het om vandag hier te wees.

Waar julle die wêreld aandurf, sal julle vind dat julle dalk wonder oor wat julle rol in die wêreld is en die soort wêreld waarin julle wil leef. Die pad vorentoe kan soms uitdagend en kompleks wees – onthou egter dat die vaardighede van harde werk, veerkrachtigheid, vasberadenheid en fokus julle sal help om vooruit te gaan. Dit is immers die vaardighede wat julle gehelp het om julle UV-kwalifikasies te behaal.

Dink ook daaraan dat gemeenskaplike en individuele verantwoordelikheid belangrik is vir ons sukses – dit het baie duidelik geword tydens die pandemie.

Reik uit na ander mense, sit 'n handjie by waar julle ook al kan, ondersteun mekaar, raak betrokke by julle gemeenskappe, en bowenal, wees welwillend en menslik. Hou dit in gedagte in alles wat julle doen.

Graduandi, ek is trots op julle veerkrachtigheid. Julle is waarlik inspirerend, en ek is vol vertroue dat julle goed voorbereid is om die toekoms aan te gryp en te floreer in eniglets wat julle aanpak.

Wees dapper, wees sterk en maak 'n verskil in hierdie wêreld.

Beste wense

DOCTORAL DEGREES

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY WITH SPECIALISATION IN BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

CHABATA, Tatenda Tawandaa

Tatenda Tawandaa Chabata was born on 27 June 1991 in Bulawayo, Zimbabwe. He matriculated at Kyle College in 2009 and obtained a Presidential scholarship to pursue a BCom double major in Business Science (Economics & Marketing) at Monash University. He later obtained a BCom Honors in Marketing Management (Cum Laude) and M. Com Marketing Management (Cum Laude) at the University of Johannesburg. In 2017 Tatenda was awarded the prestigious Chancellor Medal at the University of Johannesburg, with the Most Meritorious Master's study in the Faculty of Management. His passion for academics has led to different opportunities at public and private higher education institutions.

With his thesis, titled: THE CONTINUANCE USE INTENTION OF MOBILE SHOPPING APPLICATIONS: THE ROLE OF EXPERIENTIAL VALUE, the candidate contributes to scholarship on the growth of mobile commerce. Despite the proliferation of smartphone adoption globally, little was known about the factors that influence the continued use of mobile shopping (m-shopping) app(s). Experiential value is a critical factor that influences consumer behaviour. However, research lacked on experiential value as a mediator of the confirmation-satisfaction relationship in the Expectation-Confirmation Model (ECM). Data were collected from 410 m-shopping app users using an online, self-administered questionnaire. The results of the statistical testing showed that customer return on investment and service excellence mediated the confirmation-satisfaction relationship in the ECM. The data did not support the hypothesised moderation effects that the influence of experiential value dimensions on the user's satisfaction with using the m-shopping app to purchase products was a conditional effect of age or gender.

MOTSOMOTSO, Maletlatso Francisca

Maletlatso Francisca Motsomotso was born on 10 January 1989 in Ha Mabote, Berea Lesotho. She matriculated at Holy Family High School in 2006. She graduated with a Bachelor of Commerce Degree in Information Technology in 2013, An Honours Degree in Business Management in 2014 and a master's degree in Business Management in 2017 from the University of the Free State in 2017. She is currently a part-time lecturer at the Lesotho Institute of Public Administration and Management (LIPAM).

With her thesis, titled: THE EXPERIENCES OF WORK FAMILY ISSUES AMONGST WOMEN ENTREPRENEURS IN LESOTHO, she examined the experiences of work-family issues (work-family conflict, work-family enrichment and family support) and how they affect the success of women entrepreneurs in Lesotho, using the phenomenological approach. The candidate contributed to limited knowledge about how family and work domains interact to foster success among women entrepreneurs in Lesotho. Several cross-domain and within-domain factors that contribute to work-family conflict (e.g. trust issues, fatigue, long working hours and household work) or foster work-family enrichment (e.g. patience, decision making abilities, creativity, humility and happiness) were identified. The study also highlights how women entrepreneurs leverage their family resources to support their business operations. A framework that integrates the family and work domains was developed to guide policymakers to establish sound policies that will help to foster the success of women entrepreneurs.

THE SEANAMARENA THE TRADITIONAL BASOTHO BLANKET

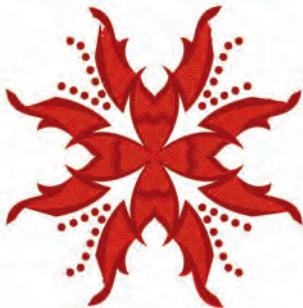

The Main Procession Graduation Gowns – embroidered with rich diversity

South Africa, and the Free State in particular, has a long-standing friendship with our neighbouring country, Lesotho.

Through a shared history, we have become co-creators of our futures. For this reason, the UFS decided to incorporate our tradition with that of the Basotho in the design of our Main Procession graduation gowns.

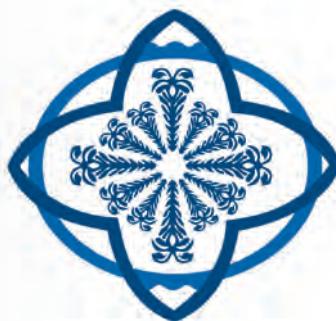

The gowns are inspired by the Seanamarena – the traditional Basotho blanket. The different patterns on the Seanamarena indicate the status one holds in the Basotho nation or reflect the occasion being celebrated. Keeping the Seanamarena pattern in mind, we combined our traditional academic designs with that of the Basotho nation.

YOKE PATTERNS

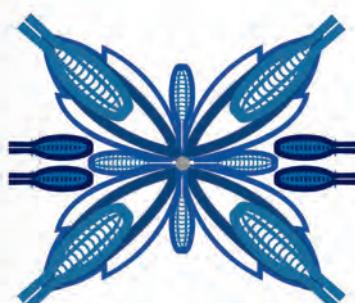

Yoke pattern for the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor

This Seanamarena pattern is an interpretation of a design – used exclusively for the king and chiefs – which means ‘to swear by the king’. This blanket has the highest status of all Basotho blankets.

Yoke pattern for the Chairperson of the Council

This Seanamarena Victorian crest motif appeared after the visit of the Prince of Wales to Lesotho in 1925, which made a profound impression on the local people. Customers refer to this blanket as ‘lesiba’ – meaning feathers – when buying it.

Yoke pattern for the Vice-Rector

This Seanamarena Poone design symbolises good crops, wealth, and fertility. The Poone is given as a present to honour an important visitor.

Yoke pattern for Registrar

The same Seanamarena Poone design used for the Vice-Rector applies to the Registrar, with some slight design and colour alterations.

The Deans wear gowns made in the colours of the faculties, or others which indicate the office they hold.
