

THE B, SM & HC GOLDSTEIN BURSARY

OBJECTS

(TO BE RETAINED BY APPLICANT)

The Fund has been established in terms of the Will of the late Henriette Constance Goldstein who died on 4 July 1982 to provide bursaries to assist South African students of promise from their second year and onwards at Universities within the Republic to reach a position as a result of these studies, to contribute to mankind generally and South Africa particularly. Bursaries are to be awarded irrespective of race, colour, creed or sex.

In the selection of the candidate the following qualifications will be considered:

- (a) The scholastic attainments of the candidates.
- (b) The moral force of character and the possession of qualities which make for good citizenship.
- (c) The need for financial assistance to enable the candidate to study at a University.
- (d) The contribution which the student intends making to mankind and South Africa in particular.

1. The amount of each Bursary shall be fixed by the Trustees who shall have the power to vary such amounts as they in their discretion may deem fit.
2. The Trustees shall have the right to award each Bursary for such period as is estimated to be required by the applicant to cover the course of study proposed or they may withhold the Bursary for any year.
3. Successful Applicants shall arrange for the most senior member of the staff under whom they are studying to send to the Trustees, not later than the 31st day of August for new applications and the 31st day of December for renewed applications each and every year, confidential reports on their progress. If, in the opinion of the Trustees, such reports are not satisfactory, the said Trustees shall have the right and be entitled to withdraw the Bursary or Bursaries in respect of any such Applicant for any period subsequent to the date of such unsatisfactory report.
4. Payment of the amount of the Bursary or Bursaries shall be made to the successful Applicant in such manner and in such instalments as the Trustees may from time to time in the exercise of their discretion decide.
5. All Bursaries granted are at the absolute discretion of the Trustees and in the event of an Application being refused or discontinued, no correspondence will be entered into.
6. Each Application shall be accompanied by a recent academic record and two references, one from your most recent tutor, plus one from a suitably qualified person who can attest to your character.
7. Applications shall be made on the attached Application Form to the Bursary Office of the University of your choice, by their closing date.
8. Please quote the name of the bursary in all correspondence.
