What is Gateway Orientation?

Two weeks prior to the start of classes, all first-years have the unique opportunity to enter the Gateway to succeed in their study careers and in university life. The annual Gateway Orientation for First-Year Students is a programme on student life. The programme is packed with a series of learning events that introduce students to campus and faculty life. It is designed to help every first-year student to adjust to the university environment, introduce students to the new environment; and to teach and transfer skills to achieve academic success and prepare students to be well-rounded graduates.

The Gateway Orientation experience includes a series of exciting lectures to guide your understanding and expectations of university life. Furthermore, it help you to orientate yourself on campus and to all the resources available to support students. The experience includes exciting student-life activities, but also first-year sports events such as athletics and swimming as well as cultural events, among many other outcomes-based activities.

All of these events provide you with well-structured opportunities to meet new friends and establish friendship networks that will support you during your studies. During the orientation experience, you will also be introduced to a peer mentor in a student mentoring programme to further support you in adapting to university life.

Why is orientation important?

The Gateway Orientation programme introduces you to important services, programmes, and resources that will be of vital importance to becoming a successful student.

What is orientation?

The Gateway Orientation programme is a programme that facilitates a number of activities to new students during the two weeks directly before classes start for the first semester. These activities are purposefully designed to orientate new students effectively to the university environment and to assist them in this way with their higher education.

Is orientation compulsory?

Yes. It is packed with information that will be helpful for success at university.

Is orientation only for students living in university residences?

No. Orientation is for ALL first-year students.

Who should attend orientation?

All first-entry students at the University of the Free State.

What can you expect when you attend orientation?

You will receive information, tools, and resources on how to navigate campus and university life.

- You will be taken on a campus and library tour so that you don't get lost by the time the semester starts.
- You will be connected to a community and make new friends.
- You will receive a FREE gift with the attendance of each session (FREE UFS T-shirt, Gateway diary, UFS pen, booklet, lanyard and card holder, and a whole lot of great giveaways and prizes to be won for participation).

When is orientation taking place?

Before classes start. Please see the Programme for complete information on venues and times. If you are unsure about anything in the Programme, find a Gateway Buddy and ask for assistance.

Where is orientation taking place?

On the campus where you will be studying. Please see the Programme for complete information on venues and times.

What are the exact dates for orientation in 2020?

Bloemfontein Campus
18 January to 1 February 2020. Please see the Programme for complete information on venues and times.

South Campus
27 January to 31 January 2020. Please see the Programme for complete information on venues and times.

QwaQwa Campus
27 January to 1 February 2020. Please see the Programme for complete information on venues and times.

How will attending orientation benefit you?

You will:

- Make friends before the semester starts
- Know your way around the campus before the semester starts
- Know about various campus activities
- Receive help with class timetables
- Be allocated to a college community
- Experience student life
- Get assisted with any other important matters before the academic semester starts.

What is a college at the University of the Free State?

A college is a cluster of student communities created to facilitate interconnectedness among our diverse student population. You automatically become part of a college by belonging to one of the following student communities:

- On-campus residence;
- Accredited off-campus residence; or
- Day residence;
- Gateway commuter community.

Which college do I belong to?

You are allocated to a college based on the residence/student community you belong to. If you stay off campus, speak to a Gateway Buddy about joining a commuter community or day residence.

To find accommodation off campus, please visit <https://www.ufs.ac.za/residences/housing-and-residence-affairs/off-campus-accommodation/accredited-student-addresses> for a list of accredited accommodation service providers.

Tips and advice

Find a Gateway Buddy whenever you feel lost!

Keep your UFS password safe and never share it with anyone.

Do not click "Save my password" on any computer on campus.

Keep your student card safe; keep it with you all the time. Your student card is an identity card as well as a user's card. It provides access to the university campuses and the library, etc. You can also use the student card to make purchases (if loaded with money/cash). Should you lose your student card (lost, stolen or damaged), contact the Student Card Division at Suite 28 on the Thakaneng Bridge to replace it; a replacement fee is payable to replace a student card. Never lend your student card to anybody!

Keep your belongings safe! Never leave any of your belongings unattended.

Always bring a pen and notebook to class. Pay attention and be an engaged student. Ask if you are unsure or if you do not understand.

Prepare for class. Study daily.

Don't be late for classes.

Lead a healthy and balanced lifestyle. Eat. Drink water. Sleep. Study. Make friends.

Study the new words on the next page to make sure you understand university communication. If you hear a new word and you do not know what it means, "ASK"!

Enjoy your learning experience at university!
