

2023 Article Refinement Programme

APPLICATION TO PARTICIPATE

TITLE, NAME & SURNAME
POSITION
PERMANENT/CONTRACT*

*If you're appointed on contract, please indicate when your contract ends. To be eligible for selection, your contract with UFS should be valid for the next two or more years.

This form outlines the rules for cooperation and provides a programme framework towards the completion and submission of at least one article per participant.

The programme is scheduled as follows:

2023 – 2024	Individual contact and/or email sessions to guide the participants
Facilitator/Mentor	Prof Corli Witthuhn (WitthuhnRC@ufs.ac.za)
CGS Coordinator	Dr Pamela Makati (MakatiP@ufs.ac.za)

- The programme does not replace writing retreats; instead it provides high-level support when needed until the article is finally published.
- This programme is an individually-paced capacity development opportunity to refine articles and thereby substantially increase the publishability of articles.
- Participants are expected to submit their applications with draft articles.
- The programme does not include editing and proofreading services.
- The CGS will not retain ownership and copyright of any article.
- Participation will be with the knowledge and consent of HODs/line managers.
- Submit all applications to MakatiP@ufs.ac.za.

The CGS will confirm your registration within two weeks after submission of your application.
