

Knowledge Frontiers Call: International Interdisciplinary Research Projects 2025 Humanities and Social Sciences

The Knowledge Frontiers call from the British Council requires the principal investigator (PI) to be a researcher from the humanities and social sciences and to be based at an eligible UK university or research institute. The involvement of co-applicants based overseas is mandatory and you are encouraged to contact your UK collaborator(s) should this call falls within the scope of your research focus area.

Aims:

The purpose of each project will be to develop new international interdisciplinary research in the humanities and social sciences to further our understanding of just transitions.

Value and duration

Awards of 24 months in duration and up to £300 000 are available. Funding can be used to support the time of the principal investigator and co-applicants; postdoctoral (or equivalent) research assistance; travel, fieldwork, and related expenses; and networking costs. Awards are offered on an 80% full economic costing basis.

Application process

Applications must be submitted online using the British Academy's grant management system (GMS), Flexi-Grant®.

The deadline for submissions and UK institutional approval is 18 September 2024 (17:00 UK time).
