

International Fellowships 2024: Social Sciences and Humanities

The International Fellowship Programme, which is jointly run by the British Academy and the Royal Society, offers researchers from the humanities and social sciences the opportunity to work for two years at a UK institution with the aim of building a globally connected, mobile research and innovation workforce. Outputs involving creative practice (e.g., musical composition and performance, visual practice, creative writing, and film making) are welcome, but will be considered to fall within the British Academy's remit only when they form part of an integrated project of critical or historical significance.
