

Tshele Moloi joined the University of Free State – QwaQwa Campus as the Lecturer in the School of Mathematics, Natural Sciences and Technology Education in 2007. Before joining the UFS, Tshele had been the Mathematics Subject Advisor in Thabo Mofutsanyana Education District

From 2014 he was part of the supervisory team supervising cohorts of M and D students within Sustainable Rural Learning Ecology (SuRLEc) and Sustainable Learning Environment (SuLE), and Instructional Leadership (IL) syndicate teams. He also served as the Subject Coordinator for Continuing Education.

In 1996, he completed his Masters degree in Mathematics Education at the North Carolina A & T State University in the USA, and in 2014 obtained his PhD degree in Curriculum Studies: Mathematics Education from the University of the Free State. The title of this thesis was: Enhancing Problem Solving Skills in a Grade10- Mathematics Classroom by using Indigenous games.

Contact: moloijt@ufs.ac.za

M.S. Mosia, T.J. Moloi, L. Letsie, M. Tlali, L. Letloenyane and T. Chele. 2015. A Strategy to Improve Grade 8 & 9 Mathematics, Natural sciences (NS), English First Additional Language (EFAL) and Economics and Management Sciences (EMS): 2015 research programme

T.J. Moloi. 2015. Report on the training workshop on Mathematics Pedagogical Content Knowledge for Grade 8 and 9 Mathematics Educations from 6 – 10 July 2015 and last sessions for five days in October 2015

M.G. Mahlomaholo, L. Letsie, M. Tlali, P. Letloenyane, T.J. Moloi, M. Mosia, K. Junqueira, S. du Toit, M. Papashane, T. Chele and S. Tshabalala. 2014. Teaching and Learning Deficiencies in Physical Science, Mathematics and English in the North West Dinaledi Schools: A strategy for Improvement. A Research Report compiled by the School of Mathematics, Natural Sciences and Technology Education of the University of the Free State. Sun Media