

Kgositsile B Chalale is an Intern at the Human Resources department, leadership and development division, with a BSocSci Qualification majoring in Industrial Psychology and Psychology at the University of the Free State, Bloemfontein Campus. He was born in the Free State, Virginia in a small township called Meloding. He matriculated in 2017 at Harmony High School. Kgositsile is a self-taught, Freelance Illustrator and graphic designer, with some of his illustrations being featured on the Tall Racks record label's Instagram page, in 2021, some of his other work appears on the training manuals for the Leadership and Development Division at the University of the Free State, where he designs illustrations for the material. He has designed music art covers for local artists that include the musical group, RareBreeds, for their Extended Play (EP) Bad Morning.