

Sean is an economic historian of southern Africa. He is currently a Research Fellow at the Centre for Gender and Africa Studies, University of the Free State. He works on the history of commerce in Lesotho, development of mobile money in Diepsloot (South Africa), and history of the Southern African Customs Union - a project funded by Gerda Henkel Foundation. He is the author of 'Commerce as Politics: The Two Centuries of Struggle for Basotho Economic Independence' (New York: Berghahn Books, 2021).