

Luvuyo Shoco is a student at the University of Free State where he is studying towards a Bachelor of Commerce in Accounting degree, with a concentration in Chartered Accountancy. He is a Golden Key Academic achiever. He has developed a deep passion for literary studies- written work of the imagination since high school. Inspired by poetry, Luvuyo spends most of his time leading and working towards igniting a broader and united society. Luvuyo aspires to pursue a career in Chartered Accountancy and Global networking which will open his poetry work out and extend his ideas in the hope to develop young talent and reach out to those insignificant.