

Performance Management – Checklist for Managers

My employee has a job profile

My employee's profile is loaded on to PeopleSoft Human Resources

A performance plan has been created and performance standards added

A formal performance discussion has taken place and was recorded on the platform

A performance evaluation has been done and recorded on the platform

Performance plan has been completed on the platform