Join the Faculty of Law, and make a difference. We welcome you."

PROFESSOR JOHN MUBANGIZI,

Dean for the Faculty of Law at the University of the Free State.

Are you a dedicated individual who is competitive, have good communication and analytical skills and can manage time effectively? Then a degree in Law might be the right fit for you!

The Faculty of Law is amongst the best in the country. Its location in Bloemfontein, the judicial capital of South Africa, exposes Law students to the practice of law in both the lower and higher divisions of the courts. Close ties with the profession allow the faculty to share the expertise of judges and legal practitioners with students. The Faculty is proud of its high academic standards and its commitment to the constant improvement of its programmes.

Hello, I am...

The Faculty of Law is committed to excellence in teaching and to delivering jurists with qualifications of international renown to the profession. Legal education will open doors to a wide variety of career opportunities, including the advocates' profession, attorneys' profession, legal advising, labour consulting, prosecuting, the magistrates' profession, and positions in government and in the insurance and banking industries. The Faculty is known for outstanding and relevant research and is also involved with community projects in which the UFS Law Clinic and several centres in the Faculty play a major role.

The Faculty enjoys close ties with several international law schools and law faculties, especially in Britain, Europe, and the USA. We are also proud of our alumni association of former law students who remain loyal to the faculty.

THE THREE MAIN DEPARTMENTS THAT CAN BE FOUND IN THE FACULTY OF LAW INCLUDE

1

Mercantile Law

2

Private Law

3

Public Law

The School of Financial Planning Law and the Free State Centre for Human Rights are also housed in the Faculty.

For admission to the 4 year Bachelor of Laws (LLB), you need a minimum AP score of 33, your English should be on at least level 6 (70%) and Mathematics on level 4 (50%). Mathematical Literacy is also accepted on level 6 (70%).
