Safer at home

I use to go to school,
Only knowing that it was cool.
But now I find myself wrapped - wrapped away from the world and being trapped!

I look to the inside
Only to find that I envy the school days.
For they kept me aside and out of trouble nowadays,

I find it hard to ask mom
Because we know that when she comes home
We are no longer alone but only to find a tired and overworked mom

For she's the one helping the sick
And she cannot stay...
Because staying apart,
is the best way to do our part.
