

Directorate for International Partnerships and Relations Hosts Department of Home Affairs Director for Immigration Engagement

Directorate for International Partnerships and Relations hosted Mr Mbhele, Director of Corporate Accounts at the Department of Home Affairs, for a series of engagements today. He met with students, postdoctoral fellows, and key university stakeholders, offering clear and valuable insights into immigration processes and procedures. His sessions were highly informative and strengthened our collective understanding of the requirements that guide international mobility.