Academic Standing

2024 REGISTRATION

Were you a UFS undergraduate student in 2023?

In preparation for the 2024 registration, based on your academic performance, you have been allocated an academic standing status. On your Academic Data Summary (ADS) under 'Service Indicators' an academic standing status has been allocated to your profile. Understand what your status means and what you need to do before you can register!

ADS Colour	ADS Service Indicator	Status	What to do... (action)
Green	Positive	Excellent! You passed 100% of your modules and you have never changed your programme plan.	No action required. You are on track! You have passed all your modules and may proceed to register online. Should you have additional queries, however, you are welcome to contact the advisors. This is not a hold/block on your record.
Yellow 1 (Y1) Yellow 2 (Y2) Yellow 3 (Y3)	Positive	You're on track! But, you have changed your programme plan or have failed modules.	Y1: You did not pass all your modules, but you are still on track. You haven't made any programme plan changes. Proceed to register online, but first register the modules you failed!	Y2: You have failed modules in the past and changed your academic plan or programme (i.e. completed a DV2 form previously). Check your record that the relevant credits/recognitions reflect	Y3: You have never failed credits or modules, but changed your academic programme or plan (i.e. completed a DV2 form previously). Check your record that the relevant programme change/ credits/recognitions reflect.
			Proceed to register online. This is not a hold/block.
Orange 1 (O1) Orange 2 (O2) Orange 3 (O3)	Negative	You are a priority student. You have failed modules more than twice / or, you have not been allocated a category.	Contact your faculty academic advisor. You cannot continue with online registration without having a conversation with your faculty academic advisor. If you still need help after this conversation, or if you need to change your academic programme and are uncertain what to change to, please contact your central academic advisor at CTL.
			O1: failed module twice in HUM / NAS.	O2: All Students with no colour yet allocated	O3: Failed a service module twice (e.g. Law student failed CSIL/Edu student failed Zoology). Not in HUM & NAS.
Red	Negative	You are high priority. You do not meet the progression rules and credit requirements.	You cannot proceed to register. You must appeal for re-admission to the UFS. Check your UFS4life email for an exclusion letter from your faculty. Submit an appeal by the deadline indicated in your exclusion letter. If you fail to appeal by the deadline, you will need to reapply for readmission. NB: Closing date for applications is 30 September 2024 for the 2025 academic year.

IMPORTANT:
All queries pertaining your academic standing status can be clarified with your Faculty Curriculum Advisor.
