

WELCOME TO HOUSE TSWELOPELE

A LETTER FROM THE RESIDENCE HEAD

Gentlemen of greatness

It is with great pleasure to formally welcome you to the student community of Tswelopele.

The name Tswelopele means progress and was established in 1999. Our logo and mascot is a bulldog and our motto is “stand your ground”. Tswelopele is home to 181 x students from all over South-Africa and Southern parts of Africa (Zimbabwe, Lesotho, Namibia, etc.). We have 80 x double rooms and 21 x single rooms in Tswelopele and please note that the single rooms are only available from your second year. Tswelopele residence is located on the Northern part of the UFS campus, next to the main entrance of campus and forms part of North College student community.

We are a value-driven residence that prides itself with the following values, Brotherhood, Excellence, Togetherness, Belonging, Ownership, Perseverance, Discipline and Diversity. Driven by our values and leadership supporting structures such as our Residence Committee, Peer mentors, Corridor primes and F.com you will immediately feel welcome and at home. As a leadership team we desire to create an environment that is conducive to student learning development and success. To ensure that you experience a sense of belonging and develop lifelong friendships in our community we strongly emphasize human dignity, mutual respect and we celebrate diversity.

At the end of 2014 the Prime and Vice-prime of Tswelopele was awarded best overall prime and vice-prime on campus, we also have two students serving as SRC members. One of our students represented the South-African student debate team in Botswana, we have the UFS varsity cup football captain with us in residence and for rugby our college won the UFS college trophy earlier this year and promise to do well this season

I look forward to seeing you in the near future.
